81st ANNUAL CONFERENCE

April 6-11, 2014

WELCOME & CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

It is our pleasure to invite you to the 81st Annual Conference of the American College of Osteopathic Obstetricians and Gynecologists. This conference has been carefully designed to meet the unique educational needs of ACOOG members, offering thorough scientific assessment of a variety of clinical topics and controversial issues that OB/GYN's face on a daily basis. In addition to cutting-edge presentations and debates, this year's schedule provides you an opportunity to participate in a Pre course in Female Pelvic Medicine and Reconstructive Surgery- (FPMRS/Urogynecology). Thank you for supporting ACOOG through your membership. We hope you will register for the 81st Annual Conference.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Those participating in this activity will receive information that should allow them to...

- Enhance the skills needed to diagnose and manage common and uncommon clinical challenges faced in a modern OB/GYN practice.
- Address current and future OB/GYN practice issues.
- Apply advances in technology and therapeutics to facilitate improved patient care and outcomes.

ACCREDITATION

The American College of Osteopathic Obstetricians & Gynecologists is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to award continuing medical education to physicians. This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Policies of the Council on Continuing Medical Education of the American Osteopathic Association.

CREDIT STATEMENTS

The American College of Osteopathic Obstetricians & Gynecologists has requested that the AOA Council on Continuing Medical Education approve this program for 30 credits of AOA Category I-A CME. Approval is currently pending.

Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

A completed attestation form and post-course evaluation are required to receive CME credit and a certificate of attendance.

PRESIDENTIAL CELEBRATION

Wednesday, April 9, 2014 join us for a Vintage Vegas themed Presidential Celebration. Cocktail attire suggested but not required. A ticket must be purchased to attend. Tickets are no longer included in the CME registration fee. Children are welcome at the celebration with the purchase of an additional ticket.
