“The Shoulder: Current Concepts on Sports, Trauma, and Reconstruction”

Dear Colleagues,

I have enclosed the Preliminary Program for the 2014 Mid-America Orthopaedic Association Annual Meeting in San Antonio, Texas, from April 23-27.

Dr. Craig Della Valle, Program Chair, and the rest of the Program Committee (Drs. Brian Wolf, Jeffrey Macalena, Andrew Markiewitz, Jeffrey McLaughlin, and Benjamin Miller) have put together a tremendous meeting which will undoubtedly rank among the best ever. A practice management symposium, an ask-the-expert forum, and expanded poster presentations are just a few examples of the new innovations they have incorporated.

A one-day pre-meeting course focused on the shoulder will be offered on Wednesday, April 23, 2014, and co-sponsored with the International Congress for Joint Reconstruction. Dr. Brian Wolf will chair this year's course. He has put together a cadre of outstanding faculty who will address the full gamut of shoulder issues, including sports medicine, reconstruction, trauma, and peri-scapular endoscopy. This course format which focuses on one anatomic area has been very popular and successful in the past. The course is geared towards orthopedic surgery residents and orthopedic surgeons in the first five years of his/her career.

As your President, I have had the opportunity to select six phenomenal speakers for the 2014 Annual Meeting. Our Presidential Guest Speaker will be former Mid-America President, Dr. Lynn Crosby from the University of Georgia, an international leader in shoulder arthroplasty. Classics Speakers include Dr. Jim Beatty from the Campbell Clinic, who is a former AAOS and MAOA President; Dr. Frank Frassica, Professor of Orthopaedics at John Hopkins and a world leader in orthopedic education and musculoskeletal oncology; and Dr. Larry Bone, Chair of Orthopaedic Surgery at the State University of Buffalo and an icon in orthopedic traumatology. Our Rapp Lecturer, focusing on innovations in orthopedic surgery, will be Dr. Thomas Byrd from the Nashville Sports Medicine Foundation. Our Steel Lecturer, which focuses on areas of interest outside of orthopedic surgery, will be Dr. Vincent Lam, who is an emergency room physician and author of Bloodletting and Miraculous Cures. Here are the specific topics for these speakers:

Dr. Lynn Crosby: "Complications of Total Shoulder Arthroplasty: Treatment and Prevention"

Dr. Jim Beatty: "Femur Fractures in Children and Adolescents...What Has Happened?"

Dr. Frank Frassica: "Decision-Making in Soft Tissue Tumors"

Dr. Larry Bone: "The Proper Place for Damage Control Surgery"

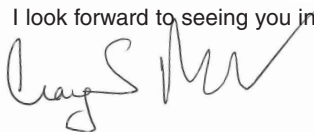

Dr. Thomas Byrd: "Hip Arthroscopy in Athletes: A Personal Journey"

Dr. Vincent Lam: "Narrative in Medicine: Why We Need Stories in an Age of Evidence"

The venue for the San Antonio meeting is the La Cantera Hill Country Resort — a tremendous location with Texas charm and flair. The resort features a beautiful poolside and family amenities, golf and tennis, and proximity to the Alamo, River Walk, and Fiesta Texas. My wife, Theresa, and the MAOA staff, have envisioned a family-friendly social program that will be fun for all ages. "Nestled in the beautiful Texas Hill Country just north of San Antonio, the La Cantera Hill Country Resort provides breathtaking views of the surrounding hill country, The La Cantera Golf Course, and downtown San Antonio. The resort is located 12 miles from the San Antonio International Airport and 15 miles from the Alamo and River Walk. It is adjacent to the Six Flags® Fiesta Texas and 15 minutes from Sea World of San Antonio." I hope you will take the time to check out the resort via the MAOA web site (www.maoa.org).

Built over an old limestone quarry that gave the resort its name, the resort offers a variety of activities including a Kids Club. The Tom Weiskopf/Jay Morrish La Cantera Golf Course surround the resort. In addition, there is a second 18-hole championship golf course designed by Arnold Palmer. The resort features unique dining, as well as six pools, three hot tubs, two tennis courts, hiking trails, and a luxurious spa.

I look forward to seeing you in San Antonio!

Craig S. Roberts, M.D., M.B.A.

Objectives:

1. List at least three strategies of treatment for humeral shaft fractures
2. Define what approach for what level of fracture in ORIF
3. Discuss how to make brace treatment work

Isolated humeral shaft fractures are controversial. The standard treatment used to be nonoperative. This has been shown to have increased rates of malunion and nonunion. Through case presentations with strong consideration of patient variables, treatment strategies for the isolated humeral shaft will be discussed.

6:30 a.m.- 8:00 a.m.

Steel Lecture – Narrative in Medicine: Why We Need Stories in an Age of Evidence

Vincent Lam, M.D.
 Emergency Room Physician and Author
 Toronto, Ontario, Canada

From the expatriate Chinese community of Vietnam and born in Canada, Dr. Vincent Lam is an author and emergency room physician. His international bestseller, Bloodletting and Miraculous Cures, won Canada's most prestigious literary prize, the Giller Prize and was adapted for television and broadcast on HBO Canada. He is also a lecturer with the Department of Family and Community Medicine at the University of Toronto. Dr. Lam's latest book is The Headmaster's Wager, a riveting story of love, betrayal, and sacrifice which is set within the Chinese community of Saigon during the Vietnam War. A celebrated speaker, his keynotes explore the idea that both the medical and literary practices are, at their core, narrative arts, while making the case that the core of human caring must always remain an act of shared story-telling.

This will be a series of presentations combining didactic lectures and technique videos. The goals are to present very practical, succinct pearls for helping the general orthopedic surgeon care for the polytrauma patient when such a patient presents to their emergency unit. We plan to keep the didactic lecture to a relative minimum and use case-based and video-based vignettes. We hope to ensure that the participants leave with the skills necessary to assess accurately, emergently intervene appropriately, and stabilize for transfer adequately. The last third of the session will be dedicated to two audience participation cases of polytrauma victims where we hope to interact with them as both educators and "acceptors of referral patients", if you will.

6:30 a.m. - 8:00 a.m.

INSTRUCTIONAL COURSE IV – Current Concepts in the Diagnosis and Treatment of Forearm, Wrist, and Hand Issues in Upper Extremity Care with Attention to Common Problems, Anatomy, Diagnosis, Treatment, and Outcomes

Continental breakfast will be available

Cincinnati, OH

David G. Dennison, M.D.
Rochester, MN

Peter J. Evans, M.D., FRCS(C)
Cleveland, OH

Jeffrey N. Lawton, M.D.
Ann Arbor, MI

A select panel of hand surgeons from the University of Michigan, the Mayo Clinic, the Cleveland Clinic, and the Hand Surgery Specialists of Cincinnati will discuss a broad range of upper extremity concerns. While common problems occur commonly, symptoms can overlap and the diagnosis may be confused affecting treatment and outcome.

The panel will highlight the common upper extremity diagnoses in the forearm, wrist, and hand for which a general orthopedic surgeon will care. They will then highlight straightforward approaches to define the diagnosis and select the appropriate management course to optimize the patient's outcome. This will include bone, joint, tendon, and nerve issues from the elbow to the fingertip. Recent literature, salient articles, and examples will be provided to illuminate each diagnosis. Pertinent research, both clinical and basic science, will be reviewed to keep the practicing surgeon up to date. Case examples will keep the discussion frank and lively.

The attendee should benefit from learning what to look for, how to understand the cause, and how to intervene to optimize their patient's care and achieve the best results.
