ASGE Hands-on Workshops at Digestive Disease Week 2014 in Chicago – Register Early!

ASGE will once again be offering 2.5 hour hands-on workshops at DDW, giving participants ample time to interact with expert faculty while participating in cutting edge demonstrations.

Plus don't miss the chance to attend ASGE's Advanced Capsule Endoscopy course at DDW. This two hour course will provide the perfect opportunity for practitioners who use capsule endoscopy to advance their skills.

These courses sell out quickly every year so register early to ensure your space!
