Tuesday 1 July 2014
Manchester Conference Centre, Manchester

The Care Act 2014 received Royal Assent and became law on 14th May 2014. The Care Act 2014 is now on the statute books leaving health and social care professionals one year to get up to speed with its provisions before full implementation in 2015.

The Act sets out the first ever statutory framework for adult safeguarding, which stipulates local authorities' responsibilities, and those with whom they work, to protect adults at risk of abuse or neglect.

This conference will look at the implications on the new Care Bill on safeguarding practice and what individuals and organisations can do to prepare for the changes.

Sessions will cover the new social care inspection system, the legal basis for adult safeguarding, the implications of the Care Act 2014 on adult safeguarding boards, adult safeguarding thresholds, identification of safeguarding concerns, the practicalities of undertaking a safeguarding investigation, the changes to the Safeguarding Adults Review process and information sharing in safeguarding.
