

General medicine symposium: clinical cases and conundrums

Friday 31 October 2014

Call for Abstracts to deliver the: 41st Croom Lecture

Applications are invited from Members (but not Fellows) of any UK Royal College of Physicians, resident in the United Kingdom, who wish to compete for the 41st Croom Lectureship. This lecture will be delivered by the successful candidate in the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh on Friday 31 October 2014

The lecture is named after the late Sir John Halliday Croom, a Past President of the College, in recognition of his support of the concept of Collegiate Membership. It is competed for annually. It concerns a topic related to modern medical practice and is delivered at the Symposium which is organised by the Trainees & Members' Committee of the College. Candidates are asked to submit a signed précis of not more than 1000 words, including relevant references, outlining the proposed lecture. The material need not necessarily comprise original investigative work nor does it need to be connected with the theme of the Trainees & Members' Symposium, further details of which can be obtained from a.fairbairn@rcpe.ac.uk

The lecturer, selected by the Trainees & Members' Committee, will receive an honorarium of £250. Travelling and subsistence expenses within the United Kingdom will be reimbursed in line with normal College procedure.

The winning submission and other entries will also be considered for publication in The Journal of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh.

Applicants are asked to email their précis by midnight on Sunday 29 June 2014 to
