Dear Colleague

The BHIVA Autumn Conference for 2014 will, once again, be held at the Queen Elizabeth II Conference Centre. Located in the heart of London, the centre provides all the facilities required for our delegates. I would like to thank Dr Alastair Miller (Chair of the Conferences Subcommittee), Dr Chloe Orkin (Conference Local Host) and all the members of the Conferences Subcommittee for their efforts in preparing an excellent programme for this conference.

Please read the registration form carefully to ensure you register for all the sessions you wish to attend, particularly taking note that it is necessary to register to attend the CHIVA Parallel Sessions and the Drinks Reception on Thursday evening. Early registration is recommended.

The conference programme is now almost finalised and the BHIVA plenary programme will cover a wide range of important topics relevant to HIV. Please refer to the programme pages of this Announcement for a schedule of topics and timings. The BHIVA National Clinical Audit initial survey results will be reviewed and, in addition, there will be an interactive BHIVA Guidelines Session focusing on getting your feedback and promoting discussion on some of the Association's latest guidelines. We are particularly delighted to welcome several eminent speakers to London. Our international speakers include Dr Jintanat Ananworanich, Professor Jeffery Lennox and Dr Bruce Levine.

The BHIVA Annual General Meeting will be held on Friday 10 October prior to lunch. I would encourage all BHIVA members to attend this meeting as it provides a forum to present any points they may have to the BHIVA Officers and members of the Executive Committee.

Accommodation has been arranged with a range of local hotels, all within a short distance of the Queen Elizabeth II Conference Centre. If you require accommodation please contact HotelMap, who provide a free hotel reservation service. Contact details can be found in this Announcement.

As Chair, I very much look forward to welcoming you to our Conference in October.

Dr David Asboe

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Registration procedure

- You can register ONLINE by visiting the BHIVA website: www.bhiva.org and following the various links.
- You will be required to submit your correspondence details and to indicate any special requirements you may have.
- Be sure to select the correct registration fee and, if necessary, please enter your BHIVA membership number.
- Please make your payment online by credit or debit card.
- You will receive an automated confirmation of your registration via email.
- Alternatively, please complete the form on page 10, and return it with your payment to the Conference Organiser.

Registration rates and policies

All registered delegates will receive a copy of the final programme in their delegate packs, which will be handed out at the conference. The registration rates are published on the Registration Form. The standard registration fee applies only if both the Registration Form and payment are received by the 15 August 2014 deadline. BHIVA members can take advantage of the discounted registration rates, as can those applying for BHIVA membership at the time of registering. All industry and commercial employees will need to register at the industry rate regardless of whether they are BHIVA members. Only registrations that are accompanied by full payment (in sterling) will be accepted and processed. It remains the responsibility of the delegate to ensure that payment by any trust or department is received by the Conference Organiser by the due date. Please note that it is the policy of the Conference Organiser not to invoice delegates for individual registrations. Confirmations of registration will be automatically sent after registrations have been fully processed and payment has been taken.

Your level of registration allows you access to various sessions and refreshments. These are outlined below

SECTION A

BHIVA Autumn Conference: 9–10 October 2014

The registration fee gives access to all scientific sessions, including the satellite symposia and the CHIVA Parallel Sessions. All refreshments and lunches throughout the conference are included in the registration fee.

SECTION B

Children's HIV Association (CHIVA) Parallel Sessions in collaboration with the British Paediatric Allergy, Immunology and Infection Group (BPAIIG): Friday 10 October 2014

Delegates can register to attend the Friday CHIVA Parallel Sessions (0850–1700). If you are registered under Section A, you need not complete this section unless you wish to attend the CHIVA Dinner; in which case the nominal fee is due. If you are not registered under Section A and wish to register for the CHIVA Parallel Sessions only, please complete this section. Your registration fee entitles you to attend the CHIVA Parallel Sessions and the CHIVA Plenary Session. In addition, refreshments and lunch on Friday 10 October will be included in the registration fee.

The Parallel Sessions will be preceded by the CHIVA Dinner at a central London location from 2000 on Thursday 9 October 2014. Please indicate on the Registration Form and pay the nominal fee if you wish to attend this social event.

BHIVA Sessions and Invited Lectures supported by bursary grants

Where indicated, BHIVA Invited Lectures and Sessions are supported by means of a bursary grant, kindly donated by sponsors. In the organisation of these sessions, all correspondence and liaison with the speakers invited to participate has been administered by BHIVA and the speakers are under no obligation to the sponsoring company. Donated bursaries will go towards supporting the honorarium, travel and accommodation of BHIVA speakers. The slots are educational in content and form part of the BHIVA plenary programme, and thus qualify for CPD accreditation.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

Medical staff in career grade posts who are enrolled with one of the Royal Medical Colleges for Continuing Professional Development will receive CPD credits at the rate of one CPD credit per conference hour (exclusive of travel, refreshments, social events and satellite symposia). The conference will be allocated a maximum of 6 CPD credits per conference day.

BHIVA Lunchtime Workshops

Places are limited and will be restricted to 80 delegates per workshop. Places will be available on site, on a first-come, first-served basis, at the door of the lunchtime workshop. Doors will open 15 minutes prior to the start of each workshop. Each workshop will begin promptly and lunch packs will be provided for delegates attending these sessions.

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Prizes and awards

The Don Jeffries BHIVA Research Award

Following the death of Professor Don Jeffries in December 2011, BHIVA has created an award in his honour. This will be awarded for the highest-scoring application, as judged by the BHIVA Research Awards Judging Panel, from the applications submitted for the 2014 BHIVA Research Awards. The award will be presented in the Lecture Theatre as part of the morning sessions on Friday 10 October 2014.

BHIVA Best Case Presentation:

- Difficult antiretroviral (ARV) decisions case presentations
- Clinico-pathological case presentations
- PrEP and PEPSE case presentations

A prize will be awarded to the presenter of the best case presentation as part of the aforementioned sessions. Applications must be received by 22 August 2014 and the prize will be presented immediately following the appropriate session.

Social events

A drinks reception has been arranged after close of sessions on Thursday 9 October 2014 at 1830. In addition, the CHIVA Dinner will be held at a central London location from 2000. Please indicate on your registration form, and pay the nominal fee, if appropriate, if you wish to attend these events.

BHIVA Community Registration

Community Registration places are limited and will be allocated as fairly as possible, in principle on a first-come, first-served basis, with a maximum of two registrations allocated per community group. The deadline to submit applications is 15 August 2014. To apply for a community registration place, please register online at www.bhiva.org indicating that your application is a community registration under the first sub-heading. Alternatively, download a community registration form from the website and fax or post this to the Conference Organiser. If your organisation is applying for the first time, please include a brief résumé of the aims and objectives of your organisation on headed paper.

BHIVA Registration Scholarships

BHIVA Registration Scholarships have been made available to assist delegates to attend the conference. Up to 10 awards will be available to healthcare professionals who are retired, not working, or employed in a part-time or equivalent capacity (max 20 hours). Students involved in full-time undergraduate or post graduate work will also qualify for these awards. The scholarship will cover the conference registration fee for the BHIVA Autumn Conference only. Please apply in writing to the Conference Organiser when submitting your registration form. All applications must be received by 15 August 2014, and successful applicants will be notified during the week commencing 18 August 2014.

Group registration

Sponsors and agencies that would like to register a group of delegates (more than 10) may do so using the group registration form which can be downloaded from the registration page of the conference website. Please read carefully the terms and conditions of group registration, which are also available on the website.

Terms and conditions of registration

Whilst all best endeavours will be made to present the programme as advertised, the British HIV Association reserves the right to make modifications to the programme and administrative arrangements in the event of special circumstances. If the conference cannot be held for any reason, liability will be limited to a refund of 75% of the pre-paid registration fee. The British HIV Association will not be liable for any loss or inconvenience caused as a result of such alterations or in the event that the conference is cancelled. Delegates are advised to take out their own insurance to cover their losses in such an eventuality.

Processing of your personal data

Information provided by you on the registration form will be processed by Mediscript Ltd and used for the purposes of providing the goods and services ordered by you, and for billing and accounts. In addition, it may be used for sending you information about future conferences and events along with other services and offers. We may also allow limited third-party mailings from organisations where we believe their services may be of interest to you. Please notify us at conferences@mediscript.ltd.uk if you do not wish your information to be used in this way.

Replacements/cancellations

Replacements of confirmed registrations are subject to a 10% administrative charge. Providing that written notice of cancellation is received by 22 August 2014, 75% of your total payment will be returned. No refunds will be made for any cancellations after this date. Any refunds will be processed after the conference.

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Accommodation

Please note that the registration fee does not include accommodation. A list of hotels and rates is available on the BHIVA website (www.bhiva.org). Please note that HotelMap has been appointed the official conference accommodation bureau. HotelMap is a web-based service that provides live details of hotel deals directly from hotels near to our event venue. On booking, you will receive a hotel reservation booking reference number. Payment will need to be made by you directly to the hotel.
