Monday 17 November 2014
Hallam Conference Centre, London

“The Care Act is an historic piece of legislation that will make a difference to some of the most vulnerable people in society for many years to come. It places care and support law into a single, clear modern statute for the first time and enshrines the principle of individual wellbeing as the driving force behind it.” Norman Lamb MP Minister of State for Care and Support June 2014

“The Act sets out the local authority’s responsibility for protecting adults with care and support needs from abuse or neglect for the first time in primary legislation. This is vital to ensure clear accountability, roles and responsibilities for helping and protecting adults with care and support needs who are experiencing, or at risk of, abuse or neglect as a result of those needs. Local authorities are given a lead role in coordinating local safeguarding activity.” Department of Health, 6 June 2014

Part 1 of the 2014 Care Act will come into effect in April 2015. This conference will look at the implications on the new Care Act 2014 on safeguarding practice and what individuals and organisations can do to prepare for the changes.

Sessions will cover the new social care inspection system, the legal basis for adult safeguarding, the implications of the Care Act 2014 on adult safeguarding boards, adult safeguarding thresholds, identification of safeguarding concerns, the practicalities of undertaking a safeguarding investigation, the changes to the Safeguarding Adults Review process and information sharing in safeguarding.
