CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

Our Spring Conference on Current Concepts in Neonatal Care will present an array of topics pertinent to health care professionals who care for the tiniest and most fragile of infants. Interventions and technologies continue to change in this field and those involved need current, evidence-based, and practical information to provide optimal care. Updates in the prevention of preterm birth; management of neonatal shock; brain monitoring and seizures; anemia; and legal dilemmas will be presented at this conference, as well as many other key issues in neonatal care. Emphasis will be placed on practical application of the evidence-based topics presented.

Topics for this year's conference have been selected based on the educational needs determined from the identified professional practice gaps. The gaps were derived from a variety of sources including evaluations and outcomes data from past participants; clinical expert input; Symposia Medicus' online survey; and other medical and nursing data.

Conference format will include didactic lectures, smaller group breakout and interactive sessions, case studies, and question and answer sessions.

An outstanding faculty has been assembled for this conference. Each member was selected based on their individual area of expertise and ability to communicate current, evidence-based and practical information to participants.

You are sure to enjoy our Spring Conference on Current Concepts in Neonatal Care while sharing ideas and experiences with colleagues from across the country in the beautiful setting of Maui, Hawaii.
