You're Invited!

As we begin to think about psychiatric-mental health nursing in 2014, we all realize that more change is heading our way. The DSM-5 has been published, and continues to raise challenging issues for practitioners and researchers. Health care policy will continue to be a hot topic as the Affordable Care Act transitions to reality. Recovery principles, integrated care, evidence-based practice, and the essential connection with our clients will remain of critical importance to achieve best-possible outcomes. How do we begin and continue to prioritize and incorporate these elements into treatment strategies and decisions?

The 2014 Psychiatric Nursing Conferences offer a forum for discussion and the exchange of ideas, as well as the opportunity to advance your knowledge and take home clinical pearls. We know you'll be energized by attending and challenged to examine what you do with a new perspective. Though we recognize that the challenges can be intimidating, we should also recognize the opportunities that addressing and meeting them will provide!

Historic Philadelphia and dazzling Las Vegas provide outstanding and unique location choices for the Psychiatric Nursing Conferences. Invite your team members to join you at one of these "must attend" events to learn, relax and network. See you there!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- ▶ Staff Nurses
- ▶ Clinical Nurse Specialists
- ▶ Nurse Practitioners
- ▶ Nurse Managers
- ▶ Educators/Instructors
- ▶ Private Practitioners/Consultants

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

THESE CONFERENCES WILL ENABLE THE EXPERIENCED CLINICIAN TO:

WE ARE HONORED TO HAVE ERIC ARAUZ SPEAK ABOUT HIS JOURNEY TO RECOVERY AT OUR CONFERENCES IN BOTH PHILADELPHIA AND LAS VEGAS!

Eric's history includes child abuse at the hands of a mentally-ill father, multiple hospitalizations in maximum-security psychiatric wards, bipolar 1 disorder, PTSD from trauma that occurred during hospitalization, and alcohol and drug addiction. Today, Eric holds Bachelors and Masters Degrees from Rutgers, trains and speaks through his consulting firm AIE, is an adjunct instructor in the Department of Psychiatry at UMDNJ/Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, and serves as Vice Chair of Governor Christie's NJ Task Force on Heroin and Other Opiate Use by NJ Youth and Young Adults.

Eric has also been honored as a 2009 SAMHSA/US Department of Health and Human Services "Voice Award" recipient; a 2012 SAMHSA "Voice Award" Fellowship winner and a faculty member for SAMHSA's five-year Recovery to Practice grant. Most recently he has worked with national nursing leaders to create nursing competencies that address suicide prevention and intervention on inpatient units. In 2012, Eric published his first book, An American's Resurrection relating his triumph over his personal demons. Eric will share his experiences and remarkable recovery journey, emphasizing resiliency and the importance of critical connections that have allowed him to do what he does today.
