Imaging Warm-Up

December 4-9, 2016

Four Seasons Resort, Nevis, Caribbean

UCSF Department of Radiology and Biomedical Imaging

Course Outline

This week-long course is designed for radiologists in clinical practice, and is intended to provide an overview of common clinical concerns in diagnosis. Lectures by leading UCSF Faculty will focus on practical tips, pointers and recognition of potential pitfalls that will aid the radiologist in the safe interpretation of images in the daily setting.

Subspecialties covered will include cutting-edge topics in abdominal, thoracic, musculoskeletal and breast imaging; as well as the appropriate utilization of CT, MR, US and PET in the corresponding organ systems. In addition, each daily session will feature a "non-interpretive spotlight" lecture, which will review some of the current non-interpretive issues and duties that impact the radiologist; who in turn must understand these issues and adapt to an evolving healthcare environment.

Self-Assessment

This course will offer 24.0 Self-Assessment credits: 3.0 in Breast, 6.75 in Gastrointestinal, 4.5 in Musculoskeletal, 0.75 in Pediatrics, 3.5 in Pulmonary, 3.0 in US/ObGyn, and 2.5 in Safety/Systems.

As of January 1, 2013, updated MOC Part 2 requirements: 75 CME credits every three years, at least 25 of which must be self-assessment activities (SA-CME, which includes SAMs). For more information: www.theabr.org/moc-dr-comp2

Course Objectives

At the completion of this course, the attendee should be able to:

1. Recommend imaging approaches for oncology patients and patients with musculoskeletal/joint conditions;
2. Identify opportunities to screen for cancer, including for lung and breast cancer;
3. Recognize common pitfalls in medical imaging, including imaging after loco-regional therapies, in patients with suspected pulmonary embolism, and in patients being screened for breast cancer;
4. Describe strengths and weakness of imaging with PET/CT.
5. Differentiate between common and uncommon imaging manifestations of chronic disease, including injuries of the knee, shoulder, liver, pancreas and spleen;
6. Implement protocols to achieve low radiation doses and optimized scanning parameters.
