

12th World Congress of Nurse Anaesthetists
May 13-16, 2016
Glasgow, Scotland

Building Bridges Between Nurses in Anaesthesia

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

|         |                                   |
|---------|-----------------------------------|
| Track 1 | Making Worldwide Difference       |
| Track 2 | Quality in Education and Practice |
| Track 3 | Globally United                   |
| Track 4 | Tools and Resources               |

Friday, May 13, 2016

|             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08:00-16:00 | Registration                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 13:00-16:00 | Opening CeremoniesWelcome from the Chair of the 2016 Congress - Manda DunneFlag CeremonyWelcome from IFNA President - Jackie RowlesWelcome from IFNA Executive Director - Pascal RodTeresa Fyffe – Director of RCN ScotlandKeynote Lecture: J.P. Nolan – BARNA President |
| 17:30-19:00 | Welcome Reception                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |

Saturday, May 14, 2016

|             |              |                                                                                                          |                                                     |                                                                              |
|-------------|--------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08:00-16:00 | Registration |                                                                                                          |                                                     |                                                                              |
|             |              | Clyde Auditorium                                                                                         |                                                     |                                                                              |
| 08:30-09:15 | Exhibition   | IFNA Plenary SessionPascal Rod IFNA Executive DirectorJackie Rowles IFNA President |                                                     |                                                                              |
|             |              | Clyde Auditorium                                                                                         | Lomond Auditorium                                   | Forth RoomBoisdale Room                                                  |
| 09:30-10:30 |              | Management of Massive Obstetric Hemorrhage                                                               | Paediatric Airway: Cuffed vs Non-Cuffed ET Tube     | Free CommunicationSafe Spinal and Epidural workshop                      |
| 10:30-11:00 |              | Coffee Break                                                                                             |                                                     |                                                                              |
| 11:00-12:00 |              | Perianaesthesia management of Eclampsia                                                                  | Adult Difficult Airway                              | Free CommunicationSafe Spinal and Epidural workshop                      |
| 12:00-13:30 |              | Lunch Break                                                                                              |                                                     |                                                                              |
|             |              | Clyde Auditorium                                                                                         | Lomond Auditorium                                   | Forth RoomCarron Room                                                    |
| 13:30-14:30 |              | Minimizing Exposure to Anaesthetic Gases                                                                 | Paediatric Difficult Airway Management              | Free Communication(Session in French)Adult Difficult Airway Workshop |
| 14:30-15:30 |              | Health Status and Fatigue in Nurse Anaesthetists                                                         | Is Paediatric Intubation Hampered by the RSV Virus? | Poster presentationsAdult Difficult Airway Workshop                      |
| 15:30-16:00 |              | Coffee Break                                                                                             |                                                     |                                                                              |

|             |  |                                               |                                                                         |                      |                                 |
|-------------|--|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|---------------------------------|
| 16:00-17:00 |  | Use of Non-invasive Cardiac Output Monitoring | Educational Principles of Sim Using a Spectrum of Simulation Modalities | Poster presentations | Adult Difficult Airway Workshop |
|-------------|--|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|---------------------------------|

Sunday, May 15, 2016

|             |              |                                                                 |                                                                                                        |                    |                                                 |
|-------------|--------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| 08:00-16:00 | Registration |                                                                 |                                                                                                        |                    |                                                 |
|             |              | Clyde Auditorium                                                | Lomond Auditorium                                                                                      | Forth Room         | Dochart Room                                    |
| 08:30-09:30 | Exhibition   | Neuro Anaesthesia                                               | Education Session Introduction                                                                         | Free Communication | Paediatric Difficult Airway Workshop            |
| 09:30-10:30 |              | Research Results: Preparation for Day Surgery Shoulder Patients | 09:15 – 10:15 The Significance of Standards and Graduate Competencies                                  | Free Communication | Paediatric Difficult Airway Workshop            |
| 10:30-11:00 |              | Coffee Break                                                    |                                                                                                        |                    |                                                 |
| 11:00-12:00 |              | Enhanced Recovery (the Anaesthetic Point of View)               | Improving Patient Safety Through Education                                                             | Free Communication | Paediatric Difficult Airway Workshop            |
| 12:00-13:00 |              | Session TBA                                                     | Educating Competent Nurse Anaesthetists                                                                | Free Communication | Paediatric Difficult Airway Workshop            |
| 13:00-14:00 |              | Lunch Break                                                     |                                                                                                        |                    |                                                 |
|             |              | Clyde Auditorium                                                | Lomond Auditorium                                                                                      | Forth Room         | Alsh Room                                       |
| 14:00-15:00 |              | The Challenges of Paediatric Bariatric Anaesthesia              | 14:00-15:30 Practice Session “A Pint for Patient Safety” Invitation for a Visit to IFNA’s Practice Pub | Free Communication | 3D Ultrasound Guided Central Venous Cannulation |

|             |  |                                                                                    |                                                                      |                         |                                        |
|-------------|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------------------|
|             |  |                                                                                    | Part One:Patient Safety                                          |                         |                                        |
| 15:00-16:00 |  | AnestheticManagement ofthe Patient withTraumatic BurnInjury        | 15:30-17:30Part Two:Revised IFNAStandards ofPractice | FreeCommunication   | 3D Ultrasound GuidedFemoral Blocks |
| 16:00-16:30 |  | Coffee Break                                                                       |                                                                      |                         |                                        |
|             |  | Clyde Auditorium                                                                   | LomondAuditorium                                                 | Hall 5                  | Alsh Room                              |
| 16:30-17:30 |  | NurseAnaesthetistsPractice: Insertionof PICCLines/Long PVKLine | Part Two cont'd                                                      | Posterpresentations | 3D Ultrasound GuidedFemoral Blocks |

Monday, 17 May 2016

|             | Clyde Auditorium                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Lomond Auditorium                           | Forth Room           | Alsh Room                                       |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| 08:30-09:30 | Greek Perspective of Stress in Anaesthesia Nursing (Greek Philosophy)                                                                                                                                                                                       | Anaesthesia in the Substance Abuse Patient  | Free Communication   | 3D Ultrasound Guided TAP Blocks                 |
| 09:30-10:30 | Excellence and Leadership in Critical Situations                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Goal Directed Fluid Therapy                 | Free Communication   | 3D Ultrasound Guided TAP Blocks                 |
| 10:30-11:00 | Coffee Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                             |                      |                                                 |
|             | Clyde Auditorium                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Lomond Auditorium                           | Hall 5               | Alsh Room                                       |
| 11:00-12:00 | Humour in Nursing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Depth of Anaesthesia – Possible to Measure? | Poster presentations | 3D Ultrasound Guided TAP (or other nerve)Blocks |
| 12:00-12:45 | Pre-closeConverging Ethics of Practice....In Our One World                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                             |                      |                                                 |
| 14:00       | Closing CeremonyClosing SpeechPoster Prize PresentationAPAP AwardsCongress Close from Members of the National Organizing CommitteePresentation of the WCNA 2018 CongressPassing of the FlagWCNA2018 Acceptance Programme |                                             |                      |                                                 |