Scripps MD Anderson Cancer Center Presents

2019 Oncology Update

The Most Important Updates from ASCO 2019

Course Overview:

Scripps MD Anderson's 2019 Oncology Update is a one-day conference designed to offer clinicians and advanced practice providers a comprehensive overview of the most recent advances in the treatment of various oncologic malignancies. During this educational course, clinical experts in the fields of hematology and oncology will provide an overview of key findings from practice changing studies and the latest clinical data as presented at the 2019 annual meeting of the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO). Esteemed faculty will review exciting and important abstracts presented at the ASCO meeting and discuss their relevance to the clinical oncology practice.

Target Audience:

- Medical Oncologists
- Hematologists/Oncologists
- Gynecological Oncologists
- Radiation Oncologists
- Internists
- Physician Assistants
- Nurse Practitioners
- Oncology Nurses

Educational Objectives:

After attending this live activity, participants should be able to:

- Discuss innovative and practice changing data presented at the 2019 ASCO Annual Meeting.
- Assess advances in clinical oncology research.
- Evaluate the role of new diagnostic techniques and therapeutic approaches in treating a number of oncologic malignancies.
- Incorporate new, evidence-based treatment strategies into clinical practice.
