BEAVER CREEK, CO

JULY 17 - 20, 2025

WELCOME!

I am honored to present the 12th annual Practical Symposium in Vail, Colorado. Our conference emphasizes essential dermatologic topics and how dermatologists and dermatopathologists work together to establish accurate diagnoses and optimal treatment plans. Based on the continued popularity of the CME hike, we plan to expand our educational activities for those who desire to learn while enjoying the great outdoors. Also, the symposium's agenda allows for numerous networking opportunities between attendees, faculty, and industry executives.

The symposium is a great fit for dermatologists, Mohs surgeons, dermatopathologists, pathologists, and clinicians who seek to deepen their knowledge base. Industry research doctors who attend will better understand their companies' important roles in the dermatology specialty. Our self-paced e-slide exam assists residents, fellows, and physicians in preparing for the certification or re-certification exam. Approximately 20-25 CME hours and 50-60 MOC credits will be available to be earned.

The symposium offers sessions in the morning and early evenings, allowing ample afternoon free time to enjoy the majestic Colorado Rocky Mountains, which are truly spectacular in the summer. I look forward to seeing you in Beaver Creek and sharing a weekend of learning, networking and socializing.

With my best personal regards,

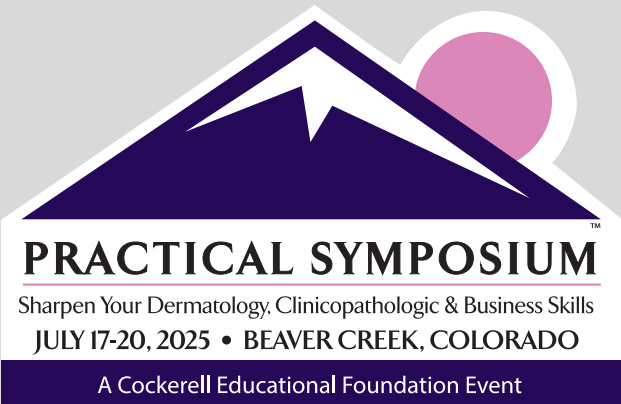

Clay Cockerell
