WELCOME

Dear friends and colleagues!

It is my great pleasure to inform you that the 19th congress of the Section of Epidemiology and Social Psychiatry of the European Psychiatric Association (EPA) will be held in Vienna, Austria, April 4-7, 2018.

Vienna has a sound tradition of social psychiatry research including psychiatric epidemiology. In addition, Vienna is at the centre of Europe and has always been a gateway to the East. The close historical, cultural, political and economic relationship to Eastern and South Eastern-European countries resulted in an open-minded atmosphere which seems to be an excellent basis for international meetings. Thus, it is a great pleasure for us to host this stimulating event.

Herzlich Willkommen in Wien!

Johannes Wancata
Local host
