5 THINGS TO DO IN DENVER

Enjoy a mix of city energy and outdoor beauty with activities and attractions for everyone. Explore downtown Denver's history, arts, and dining, visit popular museums and cultural spots, or venture into the surrounding area for scenic views, outdoor recreation, and iconic destinations like Red Rocks.

1. 16TH STREET MALL - Just steps from Convention activities, this mile-long pedestrian friendly street has shops, restaurants and other attractions. Hop on and off the free shuttle that travels the street to experience places like Denver Union Station, Skyline Park and the Museum of Illusions.

2. DENVER ART MUSEUM - Representing cultures from around the world, the Denver Art Museum is home to over 80,000 pieces covering an array of artistic disciplines. Discover global cultures without leaving Denver as you dive into collections that span three buildings.

3. OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES - There is no shortage of outdoor adventures in the Denver area. Whether you want to stay within city limits or travel farther to the Rocky Mountains, there is plenty of green space waiting for you.

4. COLORADO STATE CAPITOL - Denver is the home of Colorado's state government and its capitol building. Take a tour and immerse yourself in the history of Colorado, admire its architecture and see the exact place Denver's elevation is measured to get its nickname, "The Mile High City."

5. RED ROCKS PARK AND AMPHITHEATRE - One of the most famous concert venues in the world, Red Rocks is surrounded by acres of wildlife, rock formations, and more. Take in the scenery, catch a show, and explore the geological wonders of the park.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO YOU JOINING US IN DENVER!
