

The Shelborne Wyndham Grand: South Beach

Newly remodeled and reinvented, the Shelborne has served as a home to the Miss America and Miss Universe Pageants as well as a home away from home for some of America's biggest stars, helping it to achieve the reputation of being Miami Beach's finest oceanfront hotel. The hospitality, sun, sand, and surf the hotel is famous for has attracted guests from all over, popularizing the hotel to almost mythical status in the 1940s, 50s, and 60s. COURSE DIRECTOR: Mark T. Murphy, MD, MSN Education, Austin, Texas, and Medical Director, Northwest Anesthesia Seminars, Pasco, Washington

TARGET AUDIENCE: This course is designed for physicians, CRNAs, physician assistants, registered nurses, and other medical care providers who must maintain state-of-the-art knowledge of not only the specialty, but also of all additional related disciplines which may impact it.

PROGRAM PURPOSE: The practitioner of anesthesiology must possess the scientific background for clinical practice; maintain state-of-the-art knowledge of not only the specialty, but also of all additional related disciplines which may impact it; maintain an up-to-the-minute armamentarium of knowledge and skills for the selection and use of complex equipment, pharmacological agents, and procedures necessary for the provision of quality patient care; manage self and colleagues to function toward common goals in the clinical setting, the clinical and educational institutions, and the community in which the practice resides; serve as an expert in matters involving health care delivery; serve as an informed manager of clinical and educational services provided, including the acquisition and distribution of resources necessary in meeting professional goals; and provide assistance with and support of other service providers, departments, institutions, and organizations dependent upon the professional expertise of the practitioner. Presentations are designed to facilitate the physician, nurse specialist, and other providers maintaining skills of the same kind to review and update knowledge and abilities in one or more of these areas vital to the practicing professional.

OBJECTIVES: At the conclusion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

Apply the pertinent physical and behavioral sciences—to include but not be limited to advanced anatomy and physiology, pathophysiology, chemistry, physics, psychology, and social sciences—as they impact and are affected by the planning, delivery, and monitoring of anesthesia and related services inherent in the anesthesia professions.

Explain the selection, dosing considerations with methods of administration, safe use, and contraindications and precautions of presented pharmacological agents through the understanding of their physicochemical properties, pharmacokinetics and pharmacodynamics, updated uses, and more recently developed additional, related, and similar drugs.

Outline comprehensive management plans for the group of patients discussed, whether related in age, physical status, cultural background, invasive procedure, anesthetic or analgesic requirements, clinical setting, adverse reactions, and/or goals of care.

Apply the principles of safety and asepsis in the performance of anesthetic procedures and administrations, equipment use, and other applications encountered during the provision of anesthesia and analgesia whether in the surgical unit, the labor and delivery suite, the pain management clinic, or other more remote location of anesthetizing services.

Incorporate the appropriate recommendations and/or requirements of pertinent external organizations, institutions, and professional groups—recognized as serving as the authority for and/or holding the responsibility to compile and approve such tenets—in the provision of anesthesia and related services, whether medical, legal, philosophical, ethical, or health care management standards.

Apply the new techniques in the clinical setting of the participant.

“ Stroll the beautiful grounds of the Miami Beach Botanical Gardens or banish your winter blues lying on the beach. ”

South Beach, Florida has been called the American Riviera and an Art Deco playground, yet there's more to experience here than fine white sand and exuberant architecture. South Beach offers an eclectic mix of world-class boutiques, galleries, and also rates as a culinary hot spot for gourmet to casual cuisine. For the intrepid shopper, numerous specialty shops are here for the picking. At night, South Beach comes alive with crowds dressed in party-casual chic.

Numerous museums, such as The Wolfsonian, offer visitors a thought-provoking journey through the modern age. Showcasing American and European decorative and fine arts produced between 1885 and 1945, the array of objects is an eclectic mix including everything from propaganda posters to World's Fair memorabilia. The Jewish Museum of Florida is comprised of two restored synagogues connected to a skylighted bistro. The museum opened in the 1936 Art Deco synagogue which features 80 stained glass windows, Deco chandeliers, and a Moorish copper dome. Not enough excitement? For the daring, there is always the World Erotic Art Museum.

Many first-rate spas and golf courses are located in Miami as well. Stroll the beautiful grounds of the Miami Beach Botanical Gardens or banish your winter blues lying on the beach. Play a game of beach volleyball, sail, snorkel, or float. The southern tip of South Beach is a great place to watch cruise ships sailing out to sea.
