

28th annual Clinic Seminars

Dermatology

November 14, 2014

Cleveland Clinic

Administrative Campus

Beachwood, Ohio

About the Course

This annual course is designed for dermatologists. Sessions will cover a variety of key topics, both clinical and surgical, plus a “what’s new” segment, all presented by nationally recognized faculty. All presentations will be clinically germane and directly applicable to patient care.

Objectives

As a result of participation in this course, attendees will be able to:

- 1) discuss new and updated information about selected topics in dermatology;
- 2) describe new developments in clinical and surgical dermatology;
- 3) apply improved diagnostic and therapeutic skills to patient care.
