WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Clinicians, researchers and PhD students active in the field of antiviral therapy.

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

- This workshop aims at bridging the gap between the knowledge that is shared among experts in the field and the knowledge of researchers and clinicians in daily practice.
- The interactive setup of the program will allow opportunity to discuss region-specific issues with both local and global experts. The interaction will be facilitated by simultaneous translation and double projection.
- After participating in this meeting, you will have a thorough knowledge of the most recent results in drug development (including most recent clinical trials results) for HIV, HCV and HBV and be able to integrate the latest scientific results into daily clinical care to improve the quality of life of HIV / Hepatitis infected individuals.
- This is an excellent opportunity to meet your colleagues in an informal setting and expand your network.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

We invite you to submit abstracts for an oral or poster presentation. on the following topics:

- Basic Science of HBV / HCV / HIV
- Clinical Management of HBV / HCV / HIV
- Epidemiology of HBV / HCV / HIV
- Pharmacology of HBV / HCV / HIV
- Resistance to HBV / HCV / HIV
- Vaccine Development for HBV / HCV / HIV

Deadline abstract submission: 13 March 2015
