State-of-the-Art Issues

JULY 31 – AUGUST 1, 2015

HERSHEY® COUNTRY CLUB

1000 East Derry Road
Hershey, Pennsylvania 17033

AUDIENCE/PURPOSE

This program is designed for physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, nurses, and other health-care professionals who are interested in an update on advances in the understanding and treatment of skin diseases.

OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this program, you should be able to:

- ▶ Discuss new disease mechanisms
- ▶ Describe new treatments in skin diseases for your patients
- ▶ Apply management/leadership techniques in your practice

CREDIT

Penn State College of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

AMA

Penn State College of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 9.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

It is our policy to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all of our sponsored educational programs. Faculty and course directors have disclosed relevant financial relationships with commercial companies, and Penn State has a process in place to resolve any conflict of interest. Complete faculty disclosure will be provided to program participants at the beginning of the activity.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Accommodations are the responsibility of the participant. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Hilton Garden Inn, 550 East Main Street, Hummelstown, PA 17036. To receive the conference rate of $184 per room, call 717-566-9292 and mention that you are attending the Penn State Hershey Dermatology program. Because rooms are available on a first-come, first-served basis, we recommend you make reservations as early as possible but no later than June 30, 2015. After this date, room rates are subject to availability.
