Making Cancer History®

A Comprehensive Board Review in Hematology and Medical Oncology

Goal

The course is a 6-day comprehensive review of current standards and practices in the management of patients with blood disorders and malignancy. The course is designed to enable the participant to effectively prepare for the American Board of Internal Medicine certification and recertification examinations in Hematology and Medical Oncology. Advances in clinical pharmacology, molecular genetics and risk assessment, and radiation oncology will be included.

Educational Objectives

At the conclusion of this educational activity, participants should be able to

- Apply knowledge gained to prepare for the hematology and medical oncology subspecialty and recertification examinations in hematology and medical oncology (Knowledge, Competence);
- Utilize current standards of care for patients with cancer, blood disorders and malignancies (Knowledge, Competence, Performance);
- Demonstrate proficiency of knowledge in hematology and medical oncology (Knowledge, Competence, Performance);
- Incorporate recent advances in management of hematologic and oncologic patients (Knowledge, Competence, Performance); and
- Define molecular determinants of cancer risk and apply this knowledge in practice (Knowledge, Competence, Performance)

Target Audience

This program should be of interest to physicians, APNs, physician assistants and nurses.

Educational Methods

- Lectures
- Case-based Question-and-Answer Sessions (in board examination format)
- Syllabi (hard copy and USB flash drive - pdf format)
- A/V USB flash drive recording of conference proceeding.
The A/V USB flash drive recording of conference proceedings will be mailed to all registered conference participants approximately 2 weeks after the conference.

Evaluation

A course evaluation form will provide participants with the opportunity to review each session and speaker, to identify future educational needs, and to comment on any perceived commercial bias in the presentations.

Please let us know what specific topics, issues, or questions you wish to see addressed or emphasized in this activity. Fax or e-mail CME/Conference Management. All responses will be forwarded to the Program Chairs for consideration.

Accreditation/Credit Designation

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 48.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CME Certificates and Attendance Verification Certificates

Certificates awarding AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ or certificates documenting attendance will be distributed to participants when an individual departs the conference. To obtain a CME certificate, physicians must submit a completed evaluation questionnaire and a CME Verification Form.

Upon request, a record of attendance (certificate) will be provided on-site to other health care professionals for requesting credits in accordance with state nursing boards, specialty societies, or other professional associations.

Theater District

Houston's downtown Theater District is second only to New York for the number of theater seats in a concentrated downtown area. It is also one of only five cities in the United States with permanent professional resident companies in all of the major performing arts disciplines of opera, ballet, music and theater. The following will be playing at the time of the meeting:

Houston Symphony – Jones Hall

Mahler Symphony No. 5 – Thursday, September 17th and Saturday, September 19th at 8:00 pm

Be the first to hear the orchestral version of Stomp by composer John Corigliano (The Red Violin, The Ghosts of Versailles) and hear from the composer himself during On-Stage Insights with Andrés at the start of the concert. Then, embark on an epic spiritual journey as Andrés conducts Mahler's Symphony No. 5. From the opening trumpet solo to the tender Adagietto inspired by Mahler's wife, Alma, this symphony contains some of the most emotionally powerful music ever written.

Artist: Andrés Orozco-Estrada, conductor

Houston Ballet – Brown Theater at Wortham Theater Center

Manon – Sunday, September 13th at 2:00 pm; Friday, September 18th and Saturday, September 19th at 7:30 pm

A modern classic, Manon charts the romantic adventures of an irresistibly beautiful femme fatale and her one true love, the impoverished student Des Grieux, from the demi monde of Paris to the bayous of Louisiana. Sir Kenneth has created a brilliant dance drama that explores the relationship between love, sex, and the corrupting power of money. The passion and danger of Manon's central pas de deux have proven irresistible to audiences around the world, and have made it one of the most popular full-length ballets of the second half of the twentieth century.

Society for the Performing Arts – at Jones Hall

The Rat Pack is Back! – Friday, September 18th at 7:30 pm

What happens in Vegas...all started with The Rat Pack. This spirited show recreates one of the famous "Summit at the Sands" nights when the swingin', ring-a-ding group known as "The Rat Pack" was creating hipster legends with a free-wheeling, no-holds-barred nightclub act starring Vegas' four favorite sons: Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis, Jr., Dean Martin and Joey Bishop.

Produced by Dick Feeney, The Rat Pack is Back features uncanny vocal recreations, unbridled humor and a hot, live 12-piece orchestra that sends audiences straight back to the coolest time in history. Hits include "That's Amore," "My Way," "Mr. Bojangles," and many more. See why The Las Vegas Sun writes, "This is as close as anyone has come to capturing the feeling of the real thing," and the Chicago Tribune raves, "Classic comic material. Excellent!"

Museum District

The Houston Museum District is home to sixteen institutions, offering a range of museums, galleries, and art and cultural centers.

- The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston is the largest art museum in America south of Chicago, west of Washington, D.C., and east of Los Angeles. Included in its extensive permanent collection are pieces by Renoir, Monet, Picasso, Georgia O'Keefe, Matisse and Rodin.
- The Houston Museum of Natural Science is a five-venue complex dedicated to the knowledge of natural science. It is home to the Cockrell Butterfly Center, Burke Baker Planetarium and the Wortham IMAX® Theatre.
- The Holocaust Museum Houston - Charged with educating students and the public about the dangers of prejudice and hatred in society, The Holocaust Museum Houston is dedicated to remembering the six million Jews and other innocent victims of the Holocaust and honoring the legacy of the survivors. Using the lessons of the Holocaust and other genocides, they teach the dangers of hatred, prejudice and apathy.

Sports Center

Home to the Astros baseball, Rockets basketball, Dynamo soccer and Texans football. Professional sports don't get much bigger than in Houston.

Baseball – Friday and Saturday, September 18th and 19th

- Houston Astros vs Oakland Athletics – For game time and ticket information visit www.houston.astros.mlb.com or call 1-877-927-8767.

Attractions

- Sam Houston Race Park – Live thoroughbred racing will keep you on the edge of your seat at Sam Houston Race Park. Exciting live horse racing, eight bars, two restaurants and the best music under the stars. Find out why Sam Houston Race Park is the place to be for live entertainment! Racing is at 7:00 pm Thursday/Friday and at 5:00 pm on Saturday. For more details visit www.shrp.com or call 281-807-8700.
- Kemah Boardwalk – A waterfront getaway just 20 miles from downtown Houston. In addition to the many restaurants, a major attraction is the 50,000-gallon aquarium that gives Aquarium Restaurant its name. Guests to the boardwalk also enjoy shopping, games and rides. For more information, check out www.kemahboardwalk.com

- Galveston Island – South of Houston is Galveston, an island rich in history. The Strand Historic District is a twenty-six square block area of shopping, dining and art galleries. Within the Strand District, one will find Moody Mansion, Ashton Villa and the Bishop's Palace—opulent, historic Victorian homes of the late 1800's.
- Also found on Galveston Island, Moody Gardens is an experience like no other. The Rainforest Pyramid is lush with exotic plants, birds and fish, while the Aquarium Pyramid will submerge visitors into the beauty of ocean life. Visit www.galveston.com to learn more about what the island has to offer.
- Space Center Houston – is the official visitor's center of NASA's Johnson Space Center. Learn about the history and future of space exploration through the center's interactive exhibits. Learn more at www.spacecenter.org

Shopping Guide

Everything is bigger in Texas and shopping in Houston is no different. From chic boutiques to quaint gift shops, upscale department stores to bargain outlets; chances are you will find it here.

- Rice Village – One of the oldest shopping areas in town, Village Arcade in Rice Village is a great mix of classic stores and unique boutiques. Located near Rice University and the Texas Medical Center, the Village offers shoppers an eclectic experience. Get a sneak peek at ricevillageonline.com
- The Galleria – is the number one shopping destination in Houston with more than 375 stores and restaurants, two hotels and an ice rink. Fashion icons such as Louis Vuitton, Gucci and Tiffany & Co. are showcased here next to everyday favorites like Gap and Macy's. Need a break? Take a seat and watch the ice skaters twirl. Visit simon.com/mall to learn more about what you'll find (or won't find) in the Galleria.
- Harwin Drive – Looking for basement bargains? Head over to Harwin Drive in West Houston. Warehouse stores sell leather goods (some real and some faux), jewelry, clothing and other accessories. The area is similar to New York's Orchard Street with must-have items at unbeatable prices.

Dining Guide

Houstonians eat out more than residents of any other city and it's no wonder why. Houston is home to more than 11,000 restaurants and some of the best can be found in the downtown scene.

Sambuca Restaurant is a modern-day supper club serving up amazing entrees paired with great music. Crave Italian with a twist? Try Mia Bella's Mozzarella Fritti with roasted jalapeño pesto.

If you are looking for more than good food, visit the Downtown Aquarium—it's an underwater adventure. Vic & Anthony's Steakhouse is a world-class establishment serving USDA Prime steaks and over 1,000 of the best wines from around the world. Other restaurants include Wasabi, Bossa, Zula, St. Pete's Dancing Marlin and 43rd.
