ASIA'S THOUGHT-LEADERSHIP PLATFORM ON HEALTH INNOVATION AND INVESTMENT

The annual Asia Summit on Global Health (ASGH) brings together senior government officials and policymakers, investors, influential business leaders, financial and professional services providers as well as renowned researchers and academics from around the world to exchange insights on global health development.

Hosted in Hong Kong, one of the world's most important and best-connected financial centres and innovation hubs, the ASGH will examine global trends on health innovation and investment, explore areas of global collaboration in health, and showcase new business opportunities and partnership for investors and project owners.
