

CPD Study Day: Challenges in perioperative care of the elderly surgical patient

14th December 2015

RCoA, London

Programme

MONDAY 14 th DECEMBER 2015
0910-0940	REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS
SESSION 1
0940-1010	Demographic and socio challenges of an ageing surgical population Speaker TBC	1I02
1010-1040	Cognitive dysfunction following General Anaesthesia Professor Stanton Newman, Dean of School of Health Sciences City University, London	3I00
1040-1055	DISCUSSION
1055-1115	REFRESHMENTS
SESSION 2
1115-1145	Mental capacity and consent in the aged individual Professor Peter Hutton, Birmingham	1F02
1145-1215	Perioperative risk assessment in the elderly Speaker TBC	2A03
1215-1230	DISCUSSION
1230-1330	LUNCH
SESSION 3
1330-1400	Considerations in the care of the elderly ICU patient Dr Richard Keays, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital	2C01, 2C07
1400-1430	Optimal preoperative management of the aged hip fracture patient Dr Stanley Ralph, Royal Derby Hospitals NHS Trust, Derby	3A08
1430-1445	DISCUSSION
1445-1505	REFRESHMENTS
SESSION 4
1505-1535	Pharmacological considerations of neuroaxial and regional anaesthesia in the elderly Dr Bernadette Veering, Leiden University Medical Center, The Netherlands	1A02
1535-1605	Developing a surgical liaison service for the aged patient Dr Jugdeep Dhesi, Guy's and St Thomas', London	1I02
1605-1620	DISCUSSION
1620-1630	Closing remarks

Event organisers: Dr R Verma & Dr John Williams