PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

IMCAS Americas 2025

Cultivating the community of Dermatology, Plastic Surgery & Aging Science

We are excited to embark on a new journey for IMCAS Americas 2025, a profound exploration of innovation, knowledge, and collaboration in specialty medicine!

A strong professional community is the cornerstone of progress in science and research. It fosters an environment where experts from diverse backgrounds can exchange ideas, challenge misconceptions, and build on each other's findings. This collaborative spirit drives innovation and supports our collective mission to push the boundaries of a dermatology, plastic surgery, and medical aesthetics.

IMCAS Americas 2025 presents a unique opportunity for cross-specialty medical education, promoting collaboration among dermatologists, plastic surgeons, and aesthetic experts from around the world. The dynamic scientific program features keynote lectures from esteemed thought leaders, expert-led panel discussions, and hands-on workshops that bridge the gap between theory and practice. From mastering advanced anatomy and managing complications to exploring emerging research in combination treatments, rejuvenation, injections, and complex body procedures, the event is carefully curated to enhance your expertise.

We look forward to welcoming you to this upcoming 7th edition.

With great anticipation,

What our attendees say...

Well organized - perfect location - excellent speakers and training programs.

Thorsten Max STENGER
Plastic Surgeon • GERMANY

It is innovative!
Having contact with doctors from all over the world is excellent.

Giordana GIURIATO
Dermatologist • BRAZIL

What I like best about IMCAS Americas is learning and sharing ideas and cultural nuances in the treatment of beauty and aging with so many outstanding physicians outside of my specialty.

Steven R COHEN
Plastic Surgeon • UNITED STATES
