
Ethical Challenges in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology

INTRODUCTION

This webinar will address situations across practice settings that could present ethical dilemmas, including client abandonment, billing, conflicts of interest, confidentiality, employer demands, and professional or product misrepresentation. The presenter will provide strategies to help professionals determine if an ethical dilemma exists, what course(s) of action one might take, and steps one might consider in an effort to avoid such situations in the future.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

You will be able to:

- identify practice situations that raise potential ethical concerns
- state the purpose for and use of ASHA's Code of Ethics in ethical decision-making
- address ethical dilemmas applying the strategies and resources provided
