Overview

We are delighted to invite you to our Acute Oncology Study Day.

Our Part 1 and Part 2 AOS study days will have a strong clinical emphasis, aimed at providing delegates with practical guidance that can be used in daily practice. As such, the two days will be of value to healthcare professionals involved in the delivery of cancer care including; doctors, nurses, pharmacists and physician associates working in oncology, acute medicine, emergency medicine, medical specialties and general practice.

We look forward to seeing you in March and July 2025.

Dr Kate Young
