Invitation to IAWMH 2019 Congress

The International Association for Women's Mental Health (IAWMH) in collaboration with La Société Marcé Francophone (SMF) are very pleased to invite you to the 8th IAWMH World Congress on Women's Mental Health, which will be held in the Cité Internationale Universitaire in Paris March 2019 (5-8th).

Clinicians and researchers involved in the field of women's mental health from every country are invited to attend this congress and to contribute.

This invitation, however, does not entail any financial commitment from the IAWMH 2019 (registration, accommodation, travel and any other expenses) and it does not guarantee the issuance of a visa to enter France. The IAWMH 2019 secretariat makes no contact with embassies or consulates on behalf of the foreign participants invited to the event.

The main domains of interest at the congress will be: Gender equality, Well-Being and Vulnerability which are important contributors to Women's Mental Health. There will be outstanding Plenary Lectures, Scientific symposia, Educational and Special lectures, Workshops, Free Communications and Poster sessions, and also many social events to help you discovering the wonderful cultural city of Paris with guided tours.

We will dedicate all our efforts making this Congress an unforgettable experience for you and we are looking forward to welcoming you in Paris in March 2019, around the Women's day.

Best regards,

Jayashri Kulkarni, IAWMH President

Florence Thibaut, IAWMH Congress President and President elect IAWMH

Florence Gressier, France SMF President elect

Nine Glangeaud-Freudenthal, France SMF and Marcé Society Past President

Transport & Accommodation

Reaching Paris

By plane

Situated at the heart of Europe, Paris is easy to get to, with 2 international airports: Paris Charles-de-Gaulle (23 km to the north) and Paris Orly (14 km to the south) connecting the French capital to 557 cities in 132 countries. Aéroport de Paris handles some 14,000 flights per week.

Both international airports can be reached with public transport (RER, bus)

5 - 8 MARCH 2019
www.iawmh2019.org

By train

Paris is at the hub of an extensive and efficient rail network with connections to major European cities (London, Barcelona, Milan, Vienna, Berlin, Stockholm etc.) on TGV, Thalys, Lyria and Eurostar trains through its 6 major train stations: St Lazare, Gare du Nord, Gare de l'Est, Gare de Lyon, Gare Montparnasse and Gare d'Austerlitz. All information on the SNCF website.

Transport within Paris

The city's 16 metro and 5 RER commuter rail lines make it easy and quick to get around Paris and its environs. The public transport network (RATP) also comprises extensive bus service and several tram lines. You will find all information about the RATP network, the ticket fares on ratp.fr.

As for private transport, taxis and private hire vehicles are available on a 24-hour basis, and can be called for immediate use, or booked in advance using new smartphone applications.

Where to stay in Paris

Paris stands out from its rivals due to its well-balanced, abundant and eclectic accommodation – from luxury palaces to small local hotels, from big chain hotels to charming design hotels with 118,000 bedrooms and 2,000 hotels.

Hotel residences, Bed & Breakfasts, youth hostels and furnished apartment rentals complete the offer.

The congress venue, the Cité Universitaire Internationale de Paris, is located at the door of Paris in the 14th district.

There are few hotels at walking distance from the Congress venue:

REGISTRATION

Registration and/or social event cancellation terms and conditions

Notification of cancellation of registration and/or social event must be given in writing to 8th World Congress on Women's Mental Health (IAWMH 2019) secretariat CARCO email: laurence.eyraud@carco.fr before November 30th 2018. Refund of registration fees will be as follows:

- Up to November 30th, 2018: 50% refund
- After December 1st, 2018: no refund.

Disclaimer

IAWMH 2019 and/or its agent CARCO have the right to immediately alter or cancel the Conference or any arrangements, timetables, plans or other items relating directly or indirectly to IAWMH 2019 for reasons beyond their control. Participants will not be entitled to any compensation for damages resulting from such alterations or cancellations. Furthermore, barring intent or gross negligence by IAWMH 2019 shall not be liable for any direct or indirect damage suffered by the participants, including consequential and nonmaterial damages resulting from failure to comply with any provision of this document.

Entering into contract

The agreement between the participant and the Conference organization comes into effect at the moment that the participant has completed and sent the appropriate online registration form. The organisers of IAWMH 2019 reserve the right to refuse registration due to over-registration or special circumstances such as fear for disruption of the public order or bankruptcy of the participant.

Dissolution or suspension of the agreement

IAWMH 2019 may suspend or dissolve the agreement with the participant without judicial intervention and without notice if the participant:

- a. has applied for and been granted suspension of payments
- b. is declared bankrupt or if an application for bankruptcy is filed against the participant
- c. fails in the fulfilment of an obligation, or if the IAWMH 2019 is able to foresee that the participant will fail in the fulfilment of an obligation

Dissolution and suspension will be effective by means of a statement in writing. The Conference organization is not obliged to reimburse any damages. All claims against the participant that the Conference organization may have or obtain in such cases will then be immediately and fully eligible.

Prices

Prices are in Euro (€).

Consideration period

Unless the agreement is entered into after February 28th, 2018, after entering into the agreement the participant has a consideration period of seven business days. During this consideration period the participant may cancel participation in the IAWMH 2019 Congress at no cost.

Cancellation by the Conference organization, force majeure

If the Conference is cancelled for reasons other than force majeure, the participant is entitled to a refund of all participation fees already paid, after deduction of any applicable administration costs. If the conference must be discontinued, relocated or cancelled due to force majeure, the Conference organization will refund participation fees already paid up to the amount of any positive balance remaining after deduction of the costs incurred for the Conference, taking into account the amount paid out by the insurance contracted for the Conference.

The conference organization is not obliged to fulfil any obligation if it is prevented from doing so as a result of force majeure.

Payment

Payment of the participation fees must be made prior to March 5th 2019. Invoices must be paid within upon receipt. If payment is not received by IAWMH 2019 before the Conference start, participants will have to pay the registration fee onsite, otherwise no admittance will be allowed.

Applicable law and dispute resolution

All agreements between IAWMH 2019 and the participants will be governed by French law. The parties will endeavour to amicably resolve any disputes that may arise between the Conference organizer and the participant. If they fail to do so, the dispute will be adjudicated by the competent court in Paris.

Personal travel and cancellation insurance

The Conference organization will offer no refunds of participation fees if you are unable to participate in the Conference for personal reasons. If you wish to contract a separate travel and/or cancellation insurance, consult your insurance company.

Registration for the Conference entails full acceptance of these conditions
