Third Biennial Advances in Cancer Survivorship Practice:

A Conference For Health Care Professionals • November 5–6, 2015

Goal

The vision of The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is to enhance the excellence, value, safety and efficiency of our patient care. The goal of this conference is to increase physicians' knowledge, competence and clinical practice in caring for and treating cancer survivors by including a multidisciplinary approach to individualized care. Not only will the medical aspect of caring for survivors be discussed, the patient's perspective of their treatment options and outcomes will be included as well.

In this conference we will focus on the most commonly noted long term toxicities that can significantly affect health and psychosocial well-being of cancer survivors and speak to the multidisciplinary elements of survivorship care.

Educational Objectives

- Detect and act upon any disease recurrence or second primaries as part of standard survivorship care (Knowledge, Competence, Performance);
- Monitor and manage existing long-term and late effects of cancer treatment to improve patient outcomes (Knowledge, Competence, Performance, Patient Outcomes);
- Integrate psychosocial services effectively and consistently into day to day practice for improved cancer survivorship care (Knowledge, Competence, Performance, Patient Outcomes);
- Demonstrate appropriate multidisciplinary collaboration that ensures the best possible care for cancer survivors (Knowledge, Competence, Performance, Patient Outcomes).

Target Audience

This conference should be of interest to Physicians (Oncology, Family Medicine, Internal Medicine), Physician Assistants, Nurses, Dieticians and Social Workers.

Educational Methods

Lectures – Question and Answer Sessions – Case Studies – Poster Session and Poster Presentations - Interactive Small Groups and Discussion Groups

Evaluation

A course evaluation form will provide participants with the opportunity to comment on the value of the program content to their practice decisions, performance improvement activities, or possible impact on patient health status. Participants will also have the opportunity to comment on any perceived commercial bias in the presentations as well as to identify future educational topics.

Accreditation/Credit Designation

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 11.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.

Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

• Nursing

Nursing Continuing Education Contact Hours will be awarded.

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Texas Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

• Social Work

The University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center, Department of Social Work, is an approved provider of Continuing Education Units (CEUs) by the Texas Board of Social Work Examiners.

Social Work CEUs will be awarded upon verification of attendance for each presentation.

CME Certificates and Attendance Verification Certificates

Certificates awarding AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ or certificates documenting attendance will be distributed to participants when an individual departs the symposium. To obtain a CME certificate, physicians must submit a completed evaluation questionnaire and a CME Verification Form.

Upon request, a record of attendance (certificate) will be provided on-site to other health care professionals for requesting credits in accordance with state nursing boards, specialty societies, or other professional associations.

Call for Abstracts

Deadline for abstract submissions is Friday, August 7, 2015.

Abstracts for the Poster Session may be submitted to Cancer Survivorship

Abstract Submission through the website at <http://j.mp/1J63bgp>.

The goal of this state-of-the-science is to provide health care professionals with a firm knowledge base and improved skills in the management of post-treatment cancer care and long-term follow up. The educational focus will be on the use of evidence-based research to manage psychosocial needs, cancer risk factors, risk-reduction strategies, and screening guidelines. Participants will receive information on clinical strategies that can enhance screening, surveillance and counseling for relevant follow-up care of survivors.

Physicians, fellows, trainees, nurses and other health care professionals are encouraged to submit abstracts for podium or poster presentations for the biennial survivorship conference for health care professionals.

Abstracts will be accepted for the following categories:

1. Original survivorship research abstracts
2. Survivorship research abstracts presented at other conferences
3. Abstracts of survivorship research completed, in progress, or in planning

Abstract Instructions

Abstracts will be screened for relevance to survivorship care, education and research. Submission topics should focus on physical, psychosocial, and economic sequelae of cancer diagnosis and its treatment, or interventions to ameliorate these sequelae. Topics can also relate to health care delivery, access, and follow up care as they relate to survivors.

- Structure abstracts using the following mandatory format:
Background, Methods, Results, and Conclusion. If not applicable to your abstract, make a note of it in the appropriate section of the abstract.
- The entire abstract (title and body) must not exceed 2,000 characters (not including spaces), which is approximately 300-350 words.
- Abbreviations may be used if they are spelled out or defined at the first mention.
- One table, graph, or illustration may be included in the abstract.

Submission Instructions

Authors must indicate their role and select the category (in alphabetical order below) that best applies to the area of their cancer survivorship abstract.

Role: • Physician • Advanced Practice Provider • Nurse
• Social Worker • Allied Health • Other

Category:

- Clinical Care
 - Research
 - Education
 - Quality Improvement
 - Program Planning, Development or Evaluation
 - Other (one word/brief description):

Content: • Quality Improvement • Program • Research

All abstracts must be submitted electronically through the website at <http://j.mp/1J63bgp> – no later than Friday, August 7, 2015.

- The first author of the abstract will receive an email confirming that the abstract was received.
- Abstracts that are not submitted in the format above will not be accepted.
- Notification regarding the Program Committee's decision will be sent out in early September, 2015.
