Tatjana Pavicic, MD
DASIL PRESIDENT

We are so very excited to be bringing back the DASIL meeting to Asia — this time to the beautiful, cultural rich city of Bangkok.

Dr. Atchima Suwanchinda and her remarkable team have been working to bring to all of us a fantastic 11th World Congress, where we truly mean Masters Teaching Masters.

In 2023 we will bring Innovative Dermatology, Surgery and the World of Aesthetics into this one very special meeting.

Our DASIL members, faculty, and guests will surely find something exciting with each course and each workshop we have planned. We will also be hosting a cadaver/anatomy workshop with our award winning faculty — again, something that is not to be missed.

DASIL is a true non-profit international dermatology and dermatologic surgery organization. We pride ourselves on the openness of the group, the transparency of our activities, and abiding by our mission of Mentors Teaching Mentors — as we ensure that dermatology and dermatologic surgery are practiced and taught at the highest of levels. Our initiatives, set out by our members, continue to inspire and bring new members into the organization — which is what teaching and education is all about. We encourage everyone to join DASIL and to become part of the best dermatology group in the world.

So, plan on attending DASIL Bangkok 2023 — we look forward to welcoming the world to this outstanding Congress.

Michael H. Gold, MD
