COURSE OVERVIEW

This intensive workshop is for physicians providing legal opinion, documentation and expert testimony in cases involving sexual violence. The goal of this workshop is to provide a judicial framework for physicians preparing legal documents and/or attending court proceedings.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course, learners will be equipped to:

- appropriately document findings in clinical and forensic patient records
- review key principles involved in legal document preparation
- review the legal process and expectations of a physician in court
- proceed with preparing to qualify and attend court proceedings

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Physicians called to testify or provide documentation in cases of sexual violence.
