Nestled in the majestic Aliso and Wood Canyons, right in the heart of Orange County, resides The Ranch at Laguna Beach resort. This Orange County hotel and spa is situated on an iconic piece of land where canyon and sea meet. The Ranch LB has been re-envisioned as the home of Southern California's newest hotel and spa. This premier boutique coastal ranch hotel and spa is the perfect blend of the rich history of this storied canyon and the artistry that is Laguna Beach.

The Ranch at Laguna Beach is California's only National Geographic Unique Lodge of the World.

Grafted into the Laguna culture and notched into the perfect convergence of land and sea, a stay at The Ranch

LB is a microcosm of the best of Laguna in one organic, refined place. The staff at the Ranch offers an insider's take on hidden surf spots, shops and specialty galleries. This laid-back luxury hotel speaks to the Laguna mindset. Nonstop programs, such as the barefoot Friday golf with three clubs and monthly art gallery tours, capture the vibe of the unique locale while maintaining the benefits that come with staying at one of Orange County's coveted private resorts and luxury hotels. Rich in history, the legacy of this land is distinctive, appreciated and showcased throughout the resort.

As you stroll the grounds, the history comes alive through historic site plaques, old photo displays and an organic garden where an interpretation of the famous Thurston melons grow.
