OBSTETRIC MEDICINE FOR TRAINEES

for general medical, anaesthetic and GP trainees

Thursday 29 September 2016

Course Directors: Dr Anita Banerjee and Miss Mandish Dhanjal

The pregnant patient is acutely unwell.

Labour ward is calling you.

YOU are the doctor who can make a difference.

This course is based on the GIM updated curriculum for Medical Problems in Pregnancy. The speakers are all expert in the field and have been involved in writing the curriculum.

At the end of the course you should be confident to:

- Recognise and manage an acutely unwell pregnant patient
- Understand the MDT approach required to manage a high risk pregnancy
- Provide a comprehensive overview of common presentations of a pregnant woman with a medical condition

To be held at: W12 Conferences, Hammersmith Hospital, London W12 0NN
(please do not use this address for correspondence; see below)

Registration fee: £125
