PURPOSE

The 8th Annual Transplant Quality Institute (TQI) remains true to its founding mission of providing high-quality education and resources to professionals responsible for transplant quality and patient safety. This three-day meeting, designed for professionals with transplant quality experience, is also suitable for those new to transplant quality when combined with the Transplant Quality Foundational Concepts course.

OVERVIEW

Continuing Education Credits

Applications will be made to the American Board for Transplant Certification (ABTC) for CEPTCs and to the National Association for Healthcare Quality (NAHQ) for CPHQs.

This activity has been submitted to the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses for approval to award contact hours. The American Association of Critical-Care Nurses is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Who Should Attend?

The scope of this course is focused transplant quality training, making it an ideal opportunity for:

- Transplant program leadership with oversight responsibility for quality
- Transplant Physicians and Surgeons with responsibility for quality in transplant
- Transplant Clinical, Data, and Operational Managers
- Transplant Quality Coordinators/Officers
- Transplant Compliance Coordinators/Officers
- Transplant/Hospital Improvement Engineers/Staff
- Transplant/Hospital Educators with responsibility to educate and engage staff in quality
- Hospital Quality/Patient Safety/Risk Management
- Hospital Administrators and Executives responsible for transplant programs
- Transplant Administrators
- OPO Leaders and Quality Professionals

OBJECTIVES

Following the three-day Transplant Quality Institute conference participants will be able to:

- Discuss current and new initiatives of OPTN/UNOS
- Describe current and new SRTR performance metrics
- Explain the new CMS OPO outcome metrics
- Describe the NASEM report regarding kidney transplants and possible implications for transplant quality
- Describe the impact of broader sharing on transplant programs and OPOs
- Describe efforts to improve quality surveillance and reporting by leveraging EMR technology
- Describe utilization strategies of organs from Covid-19 positive donors
- Describe the transplant program's participation in the hospital donation council
- Discuss the implications of broader use of DCD donors
- Describe how the Improving Renal Outcomes Collaborative is driving quality in pediatric kidney transplantation
- Discuss how increasing numbers of value-based care models are impacting transplant programs
- Describe how health care workers can develop resilience

Register Today!

Register with a valid credit card at www.afdt.org. The registration fee is $699 for the in-person Transplant Quality Institute conference.

Registration and payment is expected prior to the meeting. The course will have a limited number of registrants. Early registration is encouraged; registration closes October 2, 2022; no on-site registrations will be accepted. Registration is limited and fees are not refundable after October 2, 2022.

AFDT is committed to the safety of our attendees, speakers and staff. Although this will be an in-person event, we will be following all local and state safety protocols in accordance with CDC guidelines in place during the Transplant Quality Institute Conference.

Educational Credits

Educational Credits will be distributed to paid registered attendees who complete the evaluation survey for each day of the conference. The evaluation survey closes on November 4, 2022. If you do not submit the evaluation survey, you are not eligible to receive AACN Nursing, NASW or CEPTC certificates. Once the survey has closed, it cannot be re-opened.

Earned certificates will be emailed to the email address attendees used to register with, on or before November 8, 2022. If you completed and submitted your survey and you do not receive an email with your certificate – please check your spam box. This could be because you did not complete and submit the survey

Hotel Information

The Hilton Atlanta offers centrally located hotel rooms in downtown Atlanta near the most famous attractions and world class dining in Georgia.
