ASIA 2022: EXPAND YOUR TREATMENT HORIZONS IN BANGKOK

IMCAS is honored to be back IN PERSON for the 15th edition of IMCAS Asia in collaboration with ITCAM of THAICOSDERM in Bangkok, Thailand.

After two years of distancing and closed borders, IMCAS Asia 2022 brings back the face-to-face exchange we have all missed. Renowned experts in dermatology, plastic surgery and related fields gather from around the world to share the recent advancements made in their home countries, and the Asian specialists give their regional insights in return.

The scientific program offers 3-days packed with the updates you need to expand your horizons and broaden your practice scope, featuring the latest research and techniques with a systematic look at specificities of Asian morphologies, so that you may provide the best care to all patients of all ethnicities. 14 key themes including injectables, lasers & EBD, clinical dermatology, genital treatments, regenerative medicine, face & body surgery, plus sessions on the impact of Covid-19, all form the foundation to underpin your progress while the diverse session formats stimulate learning and maximum retention of information.

Leading the list of dynamic courses is the Cadaver Workshops, a unique series of sessions that combine of cadaver dissections and patient demonstrations of genital treatments, threads, and injections for the ultimate practice training.

Once equipped with the knowledge of the anatomy, attendees can continue the learning journey to IMCAS Alert sessions for tips & tricks to manage complications. The experts presenting at these sessions introduce cases of vascular and non-vascular complication with injectables, troubling adverse results from lasers & EBD to help you avoid and manage tricky situations.

Similar formats are prepared for plastic surgeons, starting on Saturday with IMCAS Alert dedicated to complications, followed by IMCAS Video Surgery Course that presents surgery performances alongside cadaver dissections to reveal what each maneuver does on the anatomical level.

This edition of IMCAS Asia provides special sessions for young plastic surgeons and dermatologists where they can interact directly with top experts in the field, an opportunity that rarely comes by in medical school.

Last but not least, don't miss the 70 exhibiting companies and their proposed activities such as live demonstrations and symposia which give delegates the chance to explore the latest innovations and products, and gauge their effectiveness.

Escape to Bangkok with us for a new and exciting educational adventure! The entire team is eager to welcome you.
