Houston Methodist Research Institute
6670 Bertner Ave.
John F. Bookout Auditorium, 2nd Floor & MITIE^(SM), 5th Floor
Houston, TX 77030

Presented by: Houston Methodist System Cardiovascular Surgery Council and DeBakey CV Education

Program Overview: Structural heart disease (SHD) is one of the most exciting and fastest-growing fields in cardiovascular medicine and nursing. Advancements in cardiovascular technology have allowed previously improbable procedures to become the norm. This conference covers the latest guidelines, therapeutic approaches, recent trends, pathophysiology, patient selection and treatment options for SHD. Attendees will learn via didactic sessions, panel discussions, poster presentations and hands-on demonstration of the latest devices used to treat SHD.

See back of flyer for program schedule, educational objectives, registration fees and more.
