LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Dermatology and cutaneous surgery are increasingly complex fields of diagnostic and therapeutic techniques and procedures that require continual education over the course of a career. The Colorado Dermatology Society sets to achieve the following objectives:

1. Identify disease states that represent neurocutaneous dysesthesias
2. Learn antibiotic strategies that shorten hospital stays in pediatric patients with staphylococcal Scalded Skin Syndrome (SSSS)
3. Discuss the use of dermoscopy to better diagnose BCC in early stages
4. Understand Mohs technique for excision of melanoma
5. Improve design and execution of flaps and grafts
