

NORTH CAROLINA DERMATOLOGY ASSOCIATION
2019 ANNUAL MEETING

10.25 CME HOURS!

JANUARY 11-13, 2019
THE PINEHURST RESORT, VILLAGE OF PINEHURST, NC

This continuing medical education activity is jointly provided by the North Carolina Dermatology Association and the Southern Regional Area Health Education Center

2019 ANNUAL MEETING

TARGET AUDIENCE AND PURPOSE

The North Carolina Dermatology Association is pleased to announce its 2019 Annual Meeting, to be held at the historic Pinehurst Resort in Village of Pinehurst, NC. The target audience for this meeting includes dermatologists in private practice and in academic medicine, residents in training, physician assistants, and midlevel providers. This educational activity will update attendees on the latest medical knowledge available from medical literature, clinical experience and research, to keep practitioners on the forefront of new discoveries and their application to the practice of dermatology for the benefit of their patients.

OBJECTIVES

- Review the current issues surrounding private equity in dermatology.
- Review the issues relating to practicing dermatology including physician burnout.
- Assess the current evidence of diet in dermatology.
- Describe important and emerging chemotherapy reactions.
- Review the latest information on hair loss.
- Discuss novel treatments for autoimmune connective tissue disorders.
- Review legislative updates and patient advocacy in North Carolina in 2019.
- Assess the current evidence of supplements in dermatology.
- Describe the use of teledermatology in global and community health.
- Discuss updates in billing and coding.
- Review the latest information on skin of color.
- Review the issues relating to practicing dermatology including wellness.
- Discuss the latest updates in the treatment of HPV and condyloma.

CREDIT STATEMENT

AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™ - 10.25 hours

The Southern Regional AHEC designates this live activity for a maximum of 10.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ACCREDITATION

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essentials and Standards of the North Carolina Medical Society through the joint providership of the Southern Regional AHEC and the North Carolina Dermatology Association. The Southern Regional AHEC is accredited by the NCMS to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

ADDITIONAL CREDIT

Other health professionals will receive Southern Regional AHEC CEU and/or contact hours and a certificate of attendance from an AMA PRA Category 1™ activity. These certificates are accepted by the NC boards for physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and nurses. License requirements are subject to change. Southern Regional AHEC recommends that participants contact their licensing board with specific questions. Southern Regional AHEC will provide 1.0 Continuing Education Units (10.25 contact hours) to participants upon completion of this activity.

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

The Southern Regional AHEC adheres to ACCME Essential Areas and Policies regarding industry support of continuing medical education. Disclosure of faculty/planning committee members and commercial relationships will be made known at the activity. Speakers are also expected to openly disclose a discussion of any off-label, experimental, or investigational use of drugs or devices in their presentations.

OVERVIEW

MEETING FEATURES

The Annual Meeting program features outstanding faculty who will address current topics of interest to the practicing dermatologist. This year's program includes timely presentations on wellness and combatting burnout, in addition to clinical presentations and an important legislative update. The schedule includes daily breaks and a Friday evening reception in a networking hub presenting products and services to help the dermatology practice. These events will provide an opportunity to renew friendships and meet new colleagues. Attire for all functions is business or resort casual.

RESORT FEATURES AND ACCOMMODATIONS

The Pinehurst Resort is a four-diamond, family-friendly resort featuring so much more than its world-class golf courses! Lawn sports, a European-style spa, tennis courts, shops, and a fitness center are onsite, and nearby are antique and pottery shops, upscale boutiques, equestrian activities, museums and more. Advance reservations are required for most resort dining outlets and recreational activities. To secure your accommodations, please use the form in this brochure, or call the Pinehurst Resort at (877) 615-0407. Our block of rooms will be released on December 11; you are urged to make your reservation promptly. Rates are just $179 plus resort fee and taxes, per night. The resort fee covers gratuities, afternoon tea, use of the fitness center, tennis courts, putting green, bicycles, valet and self-parking, and on-demand, on-property transportation. Please be aware that the resort does have a 30-day cancellation policy.

MEETING REGISTRATION

The registration fee for this meeting is $225 for member physicians, $400 for non-member physicians, PharmD or PhD, $200 for member PA/NP or staff in NCDA member practice, and $375 for non-member PA/NP. The fee for emeritus/retired members is $150. Registration fees are waived for residents and medical students. Members of neighboring state societies may register at the NC member rate. Registration fees include continental breakfasts, daily breaks and the Friday evening reception. You may register securely online at <http://www.cvent.com/d/kbq8ft>, or complete the registration form in this brochure and return it by December 15. After that date, registration fees will increase.

REGISTRATION CANCELLATION

Please note that refunds of registration fees will not be made after January 4. Refunds, less $25, will be made for cancellations received prior to that date.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

The NCDA is fully committed to the principle of equal educational opportunities for all individuals and does not discriminate on the basis of any characteristics protected by federal or state law. If you require any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this program, please call Nancy Lowe at the NCDA at (919) 833-3836, no later than 10 business days before the date of the activity.
