ACCREDITATION

Why You Should Attend

As a primary care professional, you treat patients in pain every day. The information presented at this meeting will provide you with an opportunity to enhance your clinical care and acquire additional skills in treating patients who present with pain and pain-related symptoms. This meeting is intended to meet the clinical and educational needs of clinicians in the primary care setting and selected specialties, such as non-pain specialists who recognize the importance and challenges associated with treating patients in pain.

Who Should Attend

The Pain Care for Primary Care meeting is intended for physicians in family practice, internal medicine, neurology, and rheumatology, as well as advanced practice nurses and physician assistants working in pain or primary care.

Educational Objectives

Upon completion of this meeting, participants will be able to:

1. Recognize the competencies and skill sets required to provide quality pain care.
2. Develop strategies for handling common and complex pain care situations.
3. Integrate best practices grounded on evidence-based guidelines and recommendations.
4. Assess changes in the care and outcomes of your patients with pain-related conditions.

Continuing Education

The Pain Care for Primary Care course will offer continuing education (CME/CE) credit for physicians and nurses. Credit will be awarded for those sessions attended and evaluated. Successful completion requires that participants register for the meeting, attend and participate, and complete an online evaluation. Participants will receive their certificates immediately after they submit their evaluations online.

Family Physicians

This Live activity, Pain Care for Primary Care Course, with a beginning date of 07/28/2016, has been reviewed and is acceptable for up to 16.00 Prescribed credit(s) by the American Academy of Family Physicians. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Physicians

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the American Pain Society and Global Academy for Medical Education. The American Pain Society is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American Pain Society designates this live activity for a maximum of 16 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Physician Assistants

AAPA accepts certificates of participation for educational activities certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ from organizations accredited by ACCME or a recognized state medical society. Physician assistants may receive a maximum of 16 hours of Category 1 credit for completing this program.

Nurses

This activity has been submitted to the American Association of Neuroscience Nurses for approval to award contact hours. The American Association of Neuroscience Nurses is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

There are no prerequisites required of this activity.

Opioid REMS Course

The American Pain Society and CO'RE will present a 2-hour session incorporated into the regular PCPC course agenda on Risk Evaluation and Mitigation Strategies (REMS) for Extended-Release and Long-Acting Opioids.

Topics to be discussed during the session include the following:

- The initial assessment of the pain patient
- Developing a treatment plan
- Assessing risk for abuse
- Ongoing reassessment of the patient.

Continuing Education Credit for the REMS course will be offered separately from the PCPC course. For complete REMS course objectives, accreditation statements and information regarding CE credit for the REMS course, please visit http://pcpc-cme.com/site/REMS_Course.aspx
