

Allergen Vaccines 2020

III International Meeting on Allergy Vaccines and Immunobiologics

Varadero, Cuba, May 17-21, 2020

Invitation

We are pleased to invite you to join us at the III International Meeting on Allergen Vaccines and Immunobiologics organized by the Latin American Association of Immunology (ALAI), the Cuban Society of Immunology, the Cuban Society of Allergy and Asthma and the National Bioproducts Center \(BIOCEN\).

The third edition of this meeting intends to continue the well-laid tradition of the first two editions in 2009 and 2012, intending to enhance the opportunities of scientific exchange, cross-fertilization and cooperation between colleagues from academic and clinical research institutions, industry and regulatory agencies, from developed and developing countries.

The venue, located in the beautiful beach of Varadero, provides an unrivaled environment, which allows for an effective combination of scientific debate and relaxation in the friendliest atmosphere.

We are looking forward to having the opportunity of warmly welcoming you in Varadero, Cuba, from May 17 to 21, 2020.
