

ADEC
The Thanatology Association®

Annual Conference

April 11-13, 2024

Pre-Conference April 8-10, 2024

WESTIN OAKS AT THE GALLERIA HOUSTON TX, USA

Join ADEC for this premiere educational, interdisciplinary, global meeting for those in the field of dying, death, and bereavement.

ADEC's annual conference features engaging live and on-demand presentations, 54 concurrent sessions, networking opportunities and the flexibility to participate in-person or virtually.

Dr. Jeff Temple
Keynote - April 11

Safe at Home, Safe at School: A Roadmap to Violence Prevention

Dr. Tanya Sharpe
Keynote - April 12

The Invisibility Cloak of Grief for Black Survivors of Homicide Victims

Ted Bowman
Keynote - April 13

Narrative Power: Finding Words for Living, Dying, Death, and Bereavement

For more information and to register, visit adec.org

Early Bird rates through March 11, 2024

ADEC's Conference provides participants a certificate to track contact hours and offers CEUs for a broad range of professional disciplines including counselors, therapists, nurses, social workers, chaplains, and funeral directors. Information on accrediting partners is available at adec.org.

Looking for more educational opportunities?
ADEC offers virtual pre-conference professional development courses April 8-9 and in-person specialty workshops on April 10.
Learn more at adec.org.

Association for Death Education and Counseling®
The Thanatology Association®