Important Information

This abstract brochure is for the 2022 Western and Southern Regional scientific meetings and meetings of other participating societies held in conjunction with these meetings. Included in the Call for Abstracts brochure is information unique to the Western and Southern regional meetings. Investigators may submit abstracts to any of the regional meetings regardless of the section or geographic area in which s/he resides. Please use the appropriate electronic submission form for each of the regional meetings which is found on the Internet at http://wrm2022.abstractcentral.com or http://srm2022.abstractcentral.com. It is required of all abstract submitters to complete a CME Disclosure Form and for each co-author. This is available when you log in to submit your abstract. You must fill this form out in order to continue. For further information on the Regional Meetings please visit the AFMR website (http://www.afmr.org). It is REQUIRED that you submit your abstract electronically. If you encounter problems submitting your abstract electronically, please contact ScholarOne directly:Technical Support: 888-503-1050 / 434-964-4100 or email: ts.acsupport@thomson.com. Technical Support Hours: 12:00 AM-8:30 PM ET Monday-Friday. There is no technical support on Saturday or Sunday. If other questions arise, email Lori.Ennis@medpubinc.com for assistance.

Information for Fellows, Trainees, and Jr. Faculty for the Western and Southern Meetings

WESTERN MEETING: The WMRC will accept abstract submissions and the top scoring abstracts will be given the opportunity to give an oral presentation or a poster presentation as well as be eligible for research travel awards. The abstracts will be published in the Journal of Investigative Medicine. Apply as part of the abstract submission process. We strongly encourage Fellows/Jr. Faculty to submit abstracts to the 2022 meeting. This meeting is in an atmosphere that allows networking among physician-scientists.

SOUTHERN MEETING: The SSCI Nephrology Young Investigators' Forum will continue for 2022 fellows. It will be held at the InterContinental New Orleans on Wednesday, February 9, 2022. This postgraduate competition is designed to create a subspecialty forum for oral presentation for fellows training in this subspecialty. This competition is also designed to create a subspecialty atmosphere for networking with other fellows. Those abstracts selected will receive reimbursement for travel, hotel and registration expenses for the forum and the Southern Regional Meeting. We expect that these abstracts will also be submitted to the Southern Regional Meetings. Fellows who are selected for this forum are not eligible for other awards, but may apply. Please see www.ssciweb.org for further details. The Cardiovascular Club is offering its own program for cardiology trainees. There will be a separate check box on the submission form labeled Cardiovascular Case Report for this program.

Abstract Policies

No revisions or changes will be accepted to submitted abstracts after the deadline.

1. All abstracts are peer-reviewed and ranked on the basis of scientific merit by experts in the category selected. The Program Committees use these rankings to develop the final meeting program. Abstracts submitted for presentation (whether or not selected for presentation) will be published at the discretion of the Regional Program Committees. The decisions of the Program Committees are final. Abstracts will not be reviewed if received after the deadline.
2. The committee will decide on oral and poster presentations. Submitter will not be given a choice upon submission.
3. AFMR requires a nonrefundable abstract fee of $75.00 to cover the costs of processing, review and/or publication. This is separate from the registration fee. You must register to attend the meeting if you are presenting an abstract. Include separate payment with each abstract submitted. Payment must be made by credit card (American Express, MasterCard, or Visa). No checks or purchase orders will be accepted.
4. INFORMED CONSENT AND DISCLOSURE: AFMR has adopted guidelines for conflicts of interest (see Clinical Research, Volume 38, Number 2, April, 1990). Investigators should consider and disclose potential conflicts of interest in connection with papers presented at the regional meetings. All abstracts must comply with each of the following: (1) the responsible author must assure that at the time of submission, the material submitted herein will not have been accepted for publication or published in any full length manuscript or the same abstract published in another journal. Note, the material may have been presented at another regional or national meeting with a focused audience (i.e., such as a subspecialty meeting), such that the material presented at the SRM will be new to the broader audience; (2) that if accepted, an eligible author must be in attendance to the meeting at the specified date and time to present the abstract; (3) that any animal studies conform with the "Guiding Principles in the Care and Use of Animals" of the American Physiological Society; (4) that any human experimentation was conducted according to a protocol ap approved by an Institutional Review Board on ethics of human investigation (if no such Board exists, please state in a separate letter what standards were used to assess the ethical property of the protocol); and (5) that potential conflicts of interest will be disclosed at time of presentation of abstract. All potential conflicts of interest should be detailed in a separate letter and uploaded with your abstract. Such information will not be available to the abstract review committee.

Abstract Procedures

Step-by-Step Instructions for Electronic Submission. All users are considered New and must Create an Account.

1. For the Western Regional Meeting proceed to: http://wrm2022.abstractcentral.com. For the Southern Regional Meeting proceed to: http://srm2022.abstractcentral.com
2. The first step is to "Create an Account". Information is not saved from one year to the next. Click on the "Create an Account" link in the left side bar menu. During account creation, please bear in mind:
    A. All fields with a red asterisk are required.
    B. Your e-mail address is the primary method of correspondence. All system e-mails and other notifications related to the meeting will be sent to this address. Please keep your e-mail address up-to-date!
    C. The User ID and password that you create will be needed to log into the site after your account is created. Your User ID must be at least 6 characters long and can be a combination of letters and numbers. User ID and Password are case-sensitive.
    D. The last step in creating your account is to request a "role." For example, if you are requesting the "Abstract Submission" role, you need only check the box and you will receive the role automatically. You will then be able to submit an abstract by logging in, then clicking on the "Submission" tab at the top of the page. If you are not the presenter, you must have all of their information to complete the submission.
3. Once you have logged in using your User Name and Password, click on the Submission tab at the top of page, then on the "Create a New Submission" link located on the left-hand menu bar.
4. It is recommended that you step through the submission pages in a methodical manner, going page by page and filling in the information as you go along, beginning with Step 1: Title/Body page.
5. The title must be brief and indicate clearly the nature of the investigation. The title should be entered in UPPERCASE letters. PLEASE DO NOT enter the title in mixed case. Abbreviations must not be used in the title.
6. Do not include authors or institutions in the body of your abstract. Type or copy/paste each section of the abstract body into their respective fields. On Step 1: Title/Body page, the body of the abstract must be separated into the fields designated as: Purpose of Study, Methods Used, Summary of Results, and Conclusions, respectively.
7. You must complete the Disclosure Information on Step 2: Disclosures page.
8. There is a limit of 3000 characters for the text of your abstract submission. This does not include authors, institutions, and abstract title.
9. You may add 1 table and 1 image. However, each row in the table will deduct approximately 50 characters from the character limit of 3000 characters.
10. Please enter all authors in the order they should appear in the heading of the abstract. Complete contact information must be entered for the Presenting Author and the Contact Author. Only name and email address are required for co-authors. If you (the Contact Author) are not the Presenter on an abstract, you will need to provide full contact information on the Presenter.
11. Enter all department and institutional affiliations. Department is an optional field. Only three (3) institutional affiliations will be allowed per author. You do not need to enter institutions in a particular order to be able to designate author affiliations.
12. Carefully check the proof of your abstract. Make sure all special characters and formatting is displaying properly in your proof. If you find errors, return to the appropriate page by clicking on the page name in the sidebar menu, and make your corrections.
13. If you have not completed all required sections/items you will not be able to submit your abstract. In the case of missing items, you will be prompted to enter the missing information. When all required information is entered, click "Submit" to submit your abstract. Payment is required to complete submission of the abstract.

Abstract Deadline:

Meeting Dates:
February 10-12, 2022

Joint Plenary Session, Workshops and Symposia

Please register for the Southern Regional Meetings and workshops online at https://ww2.highmarksce.com/tulane/index.cfm?do=pln.viewActivity&plannerID=1445. The following workshops are open to all meeting registrants; however, pre-registration is requested to guarantee space. A second mailing of the meeting brochure will be mailed to members in late November. The brochure will also be available online and can be downloaded at www.afmr.org or www.ssciweb.org.

Diversity, Equality, and Inclusion Symposium: Health Disparities, Diversity, Equality, and Inclusion in Medicine
Saturday, February 12, 2022; 8:00- AM - 9:00 AM
Please join us for this special symposium.

Joint Plenary Session
Saturday, February 12, 2022; 9:00 AM – 11:00 AM
Please join us for an exciting session entitled "Metabolic Syndrome - Across the Lifespan ."

Manuscript Preparation and Peer-Reviewed Publication
Thursday, February 10, 2022; 12:00 PM – 4:00 PM
This workshop will address in a highly interactive manner the multiple aspects of publication in scientific journals. Presenter will discuss preparation of materials, including the initial decision that the data are sufficient to justify publication. Issues related to manuscript writing will include length, focus, adherence to journal formats, and referencing. The editorial process from submission to publication will be described in-depth with particular attention to ways in which authors can interact with journal editors. Another section will cover ethical issues in publication including review boards, authorship, duplicate publication, intellectual property rights, and conflict of interest. There will be open discussion of sample manuscripts and outcomes derived from real experiences as well as time to address participant's unique questions.The presenter is Associate Editor, Dr. Sarah Sundborg Long of The Journal of Pediatrics.

Clinical Case Symposium
Thursday, February 10, 2022; 12:00 PM - 2:30 PM
The Adult or Pediatric Clinical Case Symposium is devoted to the presentation and discussion of clinical case abstracts highlighting diagnostic and/or management issues. Clinical case descriptions, unique characteristics, treatment/interventions, and results/outcomes are all suitable for presentation at the Clinical Case Symposium. There will be two concurrent sessions: Adult and Pediatrics. A subset of abstracts will be selected for presentation and there will be a discussion among the authors, participants and experts in the field. At the time of abstract submission, the appropriate abstract category must be checked in order to be considered for the Adult or Pediatric Clinical Case Symposium.

The content of the presentations is provided solely by presenters who have been selected because of their recognized expertise.

Southern Awards

Listed below is a description of awards for which you may apply on the Scholar One submission form. Please choose the appropriate award on the pull-down menu if you are eligible and wish to receive an award. If the box is not checked, you will not be considered for an award. To be eligible for an award, you must apply at the time of abstract submission. You must choose only one award matching the award to the society(ies) to which you and your mentor belong. You must check all that apply since some are members of more than one society.

SAFMR/SSCI Awards

To be eligible for the SAFMR/SSCI awards, you or your mentor (in the case of students and trainees) MUST be a member in good standing of AFMR or SSCI. You may choose to become a member at the time of the award. In this case, your membership fee will be deducted from the award amount.

- The Nathan Solomon & Irene Oransky-Solomon Medical Student Research Awards: (2) are offered to recognize and encourage excellence in investigation by medical students during research training. Eligibility: Medical Students or Combined MD/PhD Students who are in research training or were in research training as of June 2021 are eligible. The applicant must be the first author of the abstract submitted in competition for the awards and plan to present the paper during the scientific sessions of the Southern Regional Meetings. Please note that it is not necessary for the senior author to be a member of SSCI. Applicants for this award are encouraged to apply for the SAFMR/SSCI Student Award as well. For consideration of this award, the abstract has to suggest: • 1) investigator-initiated • 2) hypothesis-driven basic, clinical or behavioral research • 3) conducted in a mode of discovery • 4) whose study design, findings and conclusions satisfied the proposed hypothesis • 5) findings have or will have the potential to advance the practice of medicine.

- SAFMR/SSCI Student Research Award: These awards recognize medical students and combined MD/PhD students who are currently in training and accomplished in research at the plenary session in New Orleans and award funds are intended to defray the costs for participation in the meeting. The awardee must be the first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation at the 2022 meeting. SAFMR/SSCI awardees must be present at the Joint SAFMR/SSCI plenary session to receive this award.

- SAFMR/SSCI Trainee Award: These awards recognize residents and fellows who are currently in training and recognize excellence among these groups at the plenary session in New Orleans and award funds are intended to defray the costs for participation in the meeting. The awardee must be the first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation at the 2022 meeting. SAFMR/SSCI awardees must be present at the SAFMR/SSCI plenary session to receive this award.

- SAFMR/SSCI Young Faculty Award: The purpose of these awards is to stimulate participation by faculty at the instructor and assistant professor level. Awards will be given to the young investigators with the top rated abstract in each subspecialty as judged by a committee of the officers of SAFMR and SSCI. The awardee must be the first author/presenter of an abstract accepted for presentation at the 2022 meeting. SAFMR/SSCI awardees must be present at the SAFMR/SSCI plenary session to receive this award. Only faculty at the instructor and assistant professor level are eligible for these awards.

- SSCI Young Investigator Award: The SSCI Young Investigator Awards are offered to recognize and encourage excellence in investigation by physicians and medical students during research training. Eligibility: combined MD/PhD students, interns, residents, and post-doctoral physicians who are in research training or were in research training as of June 2021 are eligible. Postdoctoral research training may be considered to extend for a period of up to three years and time spent in strictly clinical fellowships need not count against this. The applicant must be the first author of the abstract submitted in competition for the award and plan to present the paper during the scientific sessions of the Southern Regional Meetings. Please note that it is not necessary for the senior author to be a member of SSCI. Applicants for this award are encouraged to apply for the appropriate SAFMR/SSCI Award as well. For consideration of this award, the abstract has to suggest: 1) investigator-initiated; 2) hypothesis-driven basic, clinical or behavioral research; 3) conducted in a mode of discovery; 4) whose study design, findings and conclusions satisfied the proposed hypothesis; and 4) findings have or will have the potential to advance the practice of medicine. Nomination letters from the senior investigator, mentor, the division director or department chairman are required and should include a statement of the candidate's role in the study. The letters should be received no later than October 8, 2021 and uploaded via the ScholarOne website upon submission of your abstract. Abstract will not be considered for award without the letters of support. For further information contact Joan Kemp, Executive Director, Southern Society for Clinical Investigation, email: jkemp5@tulane.edu

- Henry Christian Award
  These awards were established in 1990 to honor the founder of AFMR, Dr. Henry Christian. Each year, the awards will be given to the presenter (or first author) of the most outstanding abstracts submitted to the Southern Regional Meeting. Candidates who meet the requisite criteria are eligible: physicians who are post-MD trainees, including residents, fellows, physicians pursuing PhDs or other graduate degrees, and other post-doctoral fellows. To qualify applicants must be an AFMR member in good standing and equired to upload a curriculum vitae at time of submission. Awardees will receive a Certificate of Excellence and an honorarium for the meeting.

SSPR Awards

These awards are for work intimately related to pediatric research. MUST be an SSPR member or have a sponsor who is an SSPR member. The candidates must check the appropriate award box in order to be considered. You cannot apply for the other society awards if applying for SSPR Awards.The Member/Sponsor name must also be filled in on the electronic submission form.

- SSPR Young Investigator Award: Eligible candidates include students, residents, fellows, and young faculty who are currently within 5 years of the completion of residency/fellowship training. The nominee must be first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation. A letter from the senior investigator or sponsor that includes a statement that the work was performed by the nominee and fully addresses the role the can-didate had in the work must be received by October 8, 2021 and uploaded via the ScholarOne website upon submission of your abstract. For further information contact Jay Kerecman MD; Secretary-SSPR; (jkerecman@gmail.com). Three finalists for Basic or Clinical Science research will be selected and are required to submit a manuscript (for purposes of this competition only) and present the study at the SSPR Plenary Session at the 2022 SRM meeting. Finalists will receive a stipend of $500 to facilitate attendance at the meeting. The candidates must check the appropriate award box in order to be considered and must designate either Basic or Clinical Science Division.

- SSPR Young Faculty Travel Award: The candidate must be an Instructor or Assistant Professor and within 5 years of the completion of fellowship training. They must be first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation. Approximately 5 awardees will receive a travel stipend of $500. Faculty that are candidates for the SSPR Young Investigator Awards will automatically be entered in this competition. This award is to facilitate travel for outstanding young faculty. The candidates must check the appropriate award box in order to be considered. You cannot apply for the other society awards if applying for SSPR Awards.

- SSPR Trainee Travel Award: The candidate must be a student, resident, or fellow. They must be the first author/presenter of the abstract accepted for presentation. The winner must be present at the SSPR Plenary to accept the award. Approximately 25 winning candidates will receive a travel stipend of $500. Trainees that are candidates for the SSPR Young Investigator Awards will automatically be entered in this competition. The candidates must check the appropriate award box in order to be considered. You cannot apply for the other society awards if applying for SSPR Awards

- SPR Diversity in the Pediatric Research Workforce Travel Award: This award provides support for a Southern Region researcher to attend and present their work at the Pediatric Academic Societies Meeting. Eligible: background is Black or African American, Hispanic or Latinx, American Indian or Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian or other Pacific Islander and a member of SSPR.
