

11th Bleeding, clotting and haemorrhage – An update

Thursday 10 December 2015

Organiser: Dr Ravi Rao Baikady, London

Venue: De Vere West One, 9-10 Portland Place, London W1B 1PR

09:00 Registration and coffee

Session 1: 10 years –still bleeding!

09:30 Introduction and welcome
Dr Ravi Rao Baikady, London

09:40 Extremes of anaemia
Prof Aryeh Shander, Englewood, USA

10:10 Patient blood management in surgery – do we understand?
Prof Kai Zacharowski, Frankfurt, Germany

10:40 Pathophysiology of major haemorrhage

11:00 Tea and coffee

Session 2: Monitoring coagulopathy

11:20 Monitoring coagulopathy during major haemorrhage
Dr Sibylle Kozek, Vienna

11:45 Role and limitations of routine coagulation test

12:05 Impact of technology in major haemorrhage management – Today and tomorrow
Dr Ravi Gill, Southampton

12:30 Discussion

13:00 Lunch

Session 3: Specific haemorrhage management

14:00 Cardiac surgery
Dr Andrew Klein, Cambridge

14:15 Obstetric haemorrhage
Dr Bernard Norman, London

14:30 Civilian trauma

14:55 Debate – Management of major haemorrhage
1. 1:1:1 ratio of blood products is useful
2. Ratio based resuscitation is baseless! – Dr Sibylle Kozek, Vienna

15:35 Tea and coffee

15:50 Future of blood transfusion and alternatives
Prof Aryeh Shander, USA

16:10 Role of fibrinogen in haemorrhage management
Dr Ravi Gill, Southampton

16:25 NOAC's – What we should do

Dr Ravi Rao Baikady, London

16:40 PBM current status in UK

Mr Toby Richards, Vascular & endovascular surgeon, London

17:00 Discussion

17:15 Depart