End of Life Care

Advanced Legal Issues Masterclass

Monday 15 May 2017 De Vere, West One, London

This one-day interactive masterclass will provide healthcare practitioners involved in palliative and elderly care an in-depth knowledge of the legal framework for end of life care.

The course aims to provide delegates with expertise in these key areas:

- Lasting Powers of Attorney
- Advance Decisions to Refuse Treatment
- Advance Statements
- DNA CPR Notices - what treatment these notices cover
- Verification and certification of death
- Case law discussions

Key Learning Objectives:

- gaining an in-depth understanding of key legislation and guidance on the provision of end-of-life care
- achieving best practice in the provision of care
- developing a person-centred approach

To enable delegates to maximise the benefit from this masterclass, they will need a good understanding of mental capacity, the Mental Health Act, common law framework and best interests. They must also understand the DoLS assessments and process.

Facilitated by Simon Robinson, Barrister, Five Paper Chambers the masterclass will use case studies to facilitate discussion and support delegates to maximise their learning.
