WHY PUBLISH IN GJPLM:

Global Journal of Pathology & Laboratory Medicine (GJPLM) is an international, peer-reviewed, scholarly, and scientific journal that serves as a one-stop guide for pathology and laboratory medicine and its related topics and discussions. Pathology is the study of disease and its behavior, especially the branch of medicine that deals with the laboratory examination of the ligaments or body tissues for forensic and diagnostic purposes, and experts working in the field of Pathology are called Pathologists. The medical or clinical Laboratory is a Laboratory where specimens of tissues, body fluids, ligaments, etc. are examined to gain information about treatment, cure, and prevention of the diseases.

Benefits:

1. Get to know other people in your field
2. Hear about the latest research
3. Visit a new place and have fun
4. Meet your academic heroes
5. Engage in high-level debates and refine your ideas
6. Adding to your CV
7. Avail of CME/CPD certification
8. Network with your peers
9. To expand your knowledge and find solutions to problems
10. Meet the best influencers
11. Get new ideas and solutions
12. Get certified or learn new skills

Looking for CME/CPD Accreditation

The PathologyHUB 2026 is designed to support continuous professional development through CME/CPD-accredited sessions. Attendees will have the opportunity to earn recognized credits by participating in keynote lectures, scientific sessions, and workshops led by international experts in pathology and digital diagnostics. These accredited activities are structured to enhance diagnostic expertise, laboratory practices, and professional competence, contributing to ongoing career advancement in the field of pathology.

WHAT IS ACCME?

CME Certifications (Continued Medical Education) is mostly focused on medical knowledge and the physician's medical expert role and consist of educational activities that serve to maintain, develop, or increase the knowledge, skills and professional performance and relationships that a physician uses to provide services for patients, the public, or the profession.

WHAT IS CPD?

Continuing Professional Development (CPD) refers to ongoing learning that helps professionals improve their knowledge, skills, and experience in their field. It focuses on continuous growth through activities such as training, conferences, and professional practice, often supported by a structured process for documenting learning.
