

AGORA ADVANCED GYNAECOLOGICAL LAPAROSCOPY COURSE

MELBOURNE
07 - 09 MAY 2026

PRESENTED BY AGORA
MEDICAL EDUCATION

The course is designed for trainees of all levels and surgeons performing basic laparoscopy. It aims to enhance skills by providing sound foundations on basic and advanced laparoscopy procedures.

Course Director: A/Prof Alex Ades

Course Time:

8 am until 6 pm

Richmond Rowing Club

For more information contact:

 Debora Steves

 03 9421 2533

 education@agoracentre.com.au

 agoracentre.com.au

Registration:

Standard - $2950 incl. GST

Trainee - $2550 incl. GST

This is a RANZCOG approved
CPD activity for 27 Hours

RANZCOG CPD
APPROVED ACTIVITY
SEPTEMBER 2024 - SEPTEMBER 2025

AGORA
MEDICAL EDUCATION

AGORA ADVANCED GYNAECOLOGICAL LAPAROSCOPY COURSE

Melbourne

07-09 May 2026

Course Features

- Training in all skills required to perform advanced laparoscopic surgery including surgical anatomy, instrument/tissue handling, tissue dissection, laparoscopic suturing, intra/extracorporeal knot tying
- Didactic lectures and surgical videos
- Hands-on practice with specific drills/exercises
- Recorded start-to-finish surgical cases to illustrate all principles

Topics

- Principles of Laparoscopic Surgery
- Surgical Anatomy
- Principles of Electrosurgery
- Surgical Complications
- Laparoscopic Excision of Endometriosis
- Laparoscopic Salpingectomy
- Laparoscopic Oophorectomy
- Laparoscopic Ovarian Cystectomy
- Laparoscopic Hysterectomy

Pelvic Trainer

- One dedicated pelvic trainer per participant
- Hand-eye coordination exercises
- Pelvic surgery models
- Laparoscopic models
- Laparoscopic suturing
 - Needle handling and loading
 - Suture handling
 - Extra-corporeal knots
 - Intra-corporeal knots
 - Interrupted/continuous suturing

for more information: <https://www.agoracentre.com.au/medical-education>