Clinical & Research
Meeting

April 12-14, 2018

Hilton West Palm Beach • West Palm Beach, FL

WWW.NASPAG.ORG

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to the 32nd NASPAG Annual Clinical Research Meeting, April 12-14, 2018. This year's meeting will be held at the beautiful West Palm Beach Hilton, located in the center of sunny, warm West Palm Beach, Florida close to several shopping, dining and entertainment destinations and only two miles from the beach!

Here are just some of the highlights of our program to look forward to this year:

- Nationally and internationally renowned plenary speakers including: Dr. Peter Kim MD, CM, PhD-surgical innovation, Maria Elena Bottazzi, PhD, FASTMH-vaccine development and the global public health impact on young women's reproductive health, Dr. Lisa Hollier MD-women's health policy, Dr. Irwin Goldstein MD management of vulvodynia and other vulvar disorders for PAG patients, Dr. Ken Ginsberg MD, MS Ed-fostering resilience during adolescence, and Ellen Rome MD, MPH-human trafficking.
- An impressive showcase of peer-reviewed research presentations: poster sessions with authors, platform presentations and awards.
- Interactive new workshops, sponsored workshops and round-table luncheons covering a wide array of topics suggested by our membership and past meeting attendees, and directed toward the needs of multidisciplinary learners including topics for beginners and advanced sessions for more experienced attendees.
- The return of Hot Topics to provide up-to-date focused education about clinical guidelines and best practices pertaining to evolving PAG topics.
- New formal mentoring opportunities for people interested in participating in scholarship and research with some of NASPAG's leaders in young women's health research.
- Networking opportunities for attendees in our open Special Interest Groups and various NASPAG Committee meetings.

Young women's reproductive health has faced increasing challenges nationally and globally and the need for our NASPAG community to lead clinical, research and innovation, education, advocacy and health policy efforts to promote a healthy future for young women is higher than ever before. We have designed the 2018 ACRM to provide rich learning activities to respond to this need in all of these areas and we are excited to see you in Florida to learn, inspire and celebrate young women's reproductive health together.

Register now for the 32nd NASPAG Annual Clinical Research Meeting!

Warmest regards,

Amy Sass, MD, MPH

Overview

The 32nd Annual Clinical & Research Meeting (ACRM) of the North American Society for Pediatric and Adolescent Gynecology (NASPAG) is designed for primary care physicians, specialists, nursing and allied health professionals, and physicians in training whose practices include pediatric and adolescent female patients and/or whose practices include the gynecologic care of pediatric and adolescent patients. The course will consist of keynote sessions and concurrent presentations addressing critical issues in pediatric and adolescent gynecology, surgery, endocrinology and sexuality. The faculty and participants will interact in a variety of formats, including formal and informal group discussions, oral and poster sessions including video abstracts, and lively debates in order to disseminate the latest information concerning pediatric and adolescent female patients.

Conference Objectives:

At the conclusion of the meeting, attendees should be better able to:

1. Improve knowledge about scientific advancements, best practices and innovation in fundamental and emerging topics in pediatric and adolescent gynecology.
2. Improve patient care and outcomes through integration and application of increased knowledge of research and best practices in pediatric and adolescent gynecology and demonstration of procedural skills in simulation workshops.
3. Advocate for young women's reproductive health nationally and internationally through increased knowledge of current and future public health and health policy issues impacting young women.

About West Palm Beach:

West Palm Beach is the county seat of Palm Beach County. It is one of the three main cities in South Florida.

The city is home to sunny palm-lined streets, breathtaking waterfront views, quaint shopping districts, historic and scenic neighborhoods, and exciting year-round outdoor festivals.

West Palm Beach has several world class shopping and entertainment districts including CityPlace, Clematis Street, Antique Row, Northwood Village and more.

When the sun sets on West Palm Beach, you can indulge the most epicurean of tastes by candlelight at one of the many lovely restaurants.

If you have an interest in the theater and the performing arts, the Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts is the premier location to spend an evening. For museum enthusiasts, the Norton Museum of Art houses a world-renowned collection of European, American, Chinese and contemporary art.

For those looking to enjoy the outdoors, the city's teeming waterfront offers walkways and fantastic views. On the city's western edge, you can hike, bike, and get a view of the Florida Everglades up close at Grassy Waters Everglades Preserve. (WPB, 2017)
