

ETHICS AT THE END OF LIFE

PROGRAMME

08.30 - 09.25: Registration

09.25 - 09.30: Welcome, introduction & housekeeping - Dr Jeremy Groves

09.30 - 10.00: Ethical principles - Dr Nick Spittle

10.00 - 10.30: Nursing dilemmas - Ms Julie Ann Hayes

10.30 - 11.00: Futile care? The patient with the poor prognosis - Dr Andrew Hartle

11.00 - 11.30: Tea & Coffee

11.30 - 12.00: Devastating brain injury, do we wait for recovery? - Dr Dan Harvey

12.00 - 12.45: Death, a historical perspective from poetry - Mr John Birtwhistle

12.45 - 13.45: Lunch

13.45 - 14.00: Ethical dilemmas: Small group discussion - Dr James Briscoe

14.00 - 14.30: Ethical dilemmas: Open discussion - Dr James Briscoe

14.30 - 15.00: Organ donation: Opt in, opt out? - Dr Paul Murphy

15.00 - 15.20: Tea & Coffee

15.20 - 15.50: Good Grief: Communicating what matters in the end - Peter Brindley

15.50 - 16.20: Conflict after death: The judicial view - His Honour Leslie Spittle

16.20 - 16.30: Summing up and close - Dr Jeremy Groves

1

Date and location

Monday 12th June 2017
08.30am - 16.30pm
The Education Centre,
Chesterfield Royal Hospital,
Calow,
Chesterfield,
S44 5BL

2

Participants

Aimed at anyone who works in intensive care

3

Fee and registration

Consultant member: £70.00
Consultant non-member: £100.00
SAS doctors, trainees, students, nurses & AHP member:
£50
SAS doctors, trainees, students, nurses & AHP non-member: £70

Register online via www.ics.ac.uk