Dear Sir, Madam,

We are writing this letter to request your support of the 15th International Congress on Pediatric Pulmonology – CIPP XV – to be held in Naples, Italy, June 23-26, 2016.

We invite you to support this meeting by way of a display booth, support a scientific session, organization of satellite symposia or support of one of the Young Investigator prizes or the poster award, or the proceedings (published as a supplement of Pediatric Pulmonology / Wiley)...

Alternative option would be to support the participation of pediatric pulmonary physicians at all levels to attend this meeting, or having representatives from your own organization register and attend the meeting.

Please see the options outlined in the accompanying material.

In the 20 years of its activity, CIPP has emerged as the single most significant stand-alone international pediatric pulmonology conference, and our recent meetings were able to attract over 800 delegates from around the world (70 countries were presented at CIPP XIV Krakow). Together with its sister course (International Course on Pediatric Pulmonology – ICPP 12 The Course), it has become the leading platform of exchange of ideas, education, and cross-fertilization of pediatric pulmonologists worldwide.

Despite the attendance record, we remain dependant on industry sponsorship to be able to sustain our excellence. Starting 2011, CIPP became an annual event and at each of our meetings our sponsors will have direct access to this wide panel of the most prominent specialists and researchers in the field of Pediatric Pulmonology.

Please feel free to contact any of us directly if you have any questions regarding this important international meeting, or contact the CIPP XV secretariat (details below)

Sincerely yours,

The CIPP Founding Fathers:

NAPLES | ITALY | JUNE 23-26, 2016

Dear Industry Partners,

On behalf of the Executive Committee and the International Advisory Board of the International Congress of Pediatric Pulmonology (CIPP), I would like to invite you to participate in the coming congress CIPP XV on June 23-26, 2016 in Naples, Italy.

The International Congress of Pediatric Pulmonology (CIPP) is the only international meeting devoted to Pediatric Pulmonology. Over the years, CIPP has acquired a reputable status among practitioners, researchers and academicians as the forum for new information, treatment guidelines, and interactions between leading specialists and practitioners in Pediatric Pulmonology from both developed and developing countries. Aside from plenary sessions and topic symposiums, a hallmark of CIPP is the number of interactive sessions: research presentations, clinical case discussions, chest imaging, and bronchoscopy.

Adding to its series of successful congresses in the previous 21 years, CIPP XIV was held on June 2015 in Krakow, Poland, attended by doctors treating children with chest diseases and conditions from over 70 countries. The faculty was composed of leading specialists and researchers in the field from all parts of the world, ready to learn and to teach for the common purpose of improving on the treatment of our young patients. Common themes included asthma and respiratory allergies, respiratory infections and its complications, neonatal lung diseases and its outcomes, cystic fibrosis, sleep disordered breathing, critical care, and rare lung diseases. Following a tradition, awards were given to Young Investigators. Industry-sponsored symposia and exhibits offered new information on existing treatments and those under development.

We are now preparing for CIPP XV which will be held on June 23-26, 2016 in Naples, Italy. The program for the coming congress was prepared by Dr. Adnan Custovic and Dr. Renato Stein, co-chairs Abstract and Award Committee with the Executive Committee, promises to be equally exciting, if not better, and would again attract participants from the Americas, Europe, Middle East and Asia.

We are inviting you to be a partner with CIPP in this endeavor, that of providing a forum for an exchange of information, ideas and concerns, and a vehicle for developing lasting relationships.

ABOUT THE MEETING

The 1st CIPP organized in Nice in 1994 at the initiative of Professors Alain Grimfeld (France) and Jean-Paul Praud (Canada QC) was an enormous success as a new platform that brought together Respiratory specialists and Pediatricians around the emerging specialty common to all concerned, Pediatric Pulmonology.

The organizers of the CIPP had achieved, for the first time, the challenging feat: that of creating a close working relationship between leading specialists in pediatric pulmonology from developed and developing countries around a number of common themes: Asthma and respiratory allergies, respiratory infections and tuberculosis, Cystic Fibrosis and Snoring.

Over the years, CIPP has acquired a reputable status among prestigious congresses in both Pulmonology and Pediatrics by focusing its attention specifically on the pediatric aspect of respiratory diseases, in keeping with the standards of large international meetings.

Twenty years later, CIPP XIV was a major international event where physicians treating children with chest diseases coming from 70 countries attended for the meeting in Kralow, Poland.

We are continuing to build on this international co-operation; speakers will come from all parts of the world, ready to learn and to teach. The twin themes of the meeting will be: 'What have I got to teach others practicing in a different environment from my own?' and 'What have I got to learn from others practicing in an environment different from my own?' We will come together from the developed and the developing world to learn together for the common purpose of improving on the treatment of our young patients and thus to be better upon our return home.

For this 15th edition, which will take place in Naples, we are expecting once again a numerous attendees from all around the Globe.

The 15th CIPP has also endeavored to increase its educational activities

In addition to plenary sessions and topic symposiums, CIPP also offers:

- keynote lectures given by renowned leaders of Pediatric Pulmonology,
- Post-graduate Courses on LFT and Bronchoscopy,
- interactive sessions both in conventional format and in Quiz and hands-on forms on the use of the newest and latest technology in bronchoscopy and respiratory imaging,
- interactive clinical case sessions
- a tremendous workshop with the discovery of the therapeutic virtues of Magic, a new mean for entertainment and communication with sick children,
- satellite symposia sponsored by the Industry under the heading of a renewed partnership.

A prestigious platform offered to young investigators

The young investigator's forum at the 15th CIPP will gain center place.

The Young Investigator Award will include 3 prizes : 1500 USD, 1000 USD and 500 USD to young investigators in Pediatric Pulmonology whose work has been selected by an international special jury.

These recipients will be offered the opportunity to present their research in a plenary session.

The remaining works submitted and selected for scientific merit, will be presented in Poster session for the duration of the congress.

The Top 3 Poster Prizes will award the three best posters selected by the same jury.

Three travel grants of 500 USD each will be offered to young investigators from developing countries.

This broad opening to the world and especially the support of young investigators remains the hallmark of CIPP.

Climate

Naples in the Campania region of southern Italy exhibits a typical Mediterranean climate. The weather turns quite hot in Summer; cool and damp in the winter. It can be foggy along the coast in winter, although there will also be bright, sunny days which will be tolerable due to the usually mild evening temperatures.

Regulations for Foreign Visitors to Naples (Italy)

There are many countries whose citizens can visit Italy as tourists without a visa for up to 90 days within each 180-day period for tourist or business purposes. Your passport should be valid for at least three months beyond your intended date of departure from the Schengen area. You need sufficient funds and a return airline ticket. If your passport does not meet the Schengen requirements, you may be refused boarding by the airline at your point of origin or while transferring planes. You could also be denied entry when you arrive in the Schengen area. For this reason, we recommend that your passport have at least six months 'validity remaining whenever you travel abroad. For more information, kindly check with your local Italian embassy.

Please note that individual airlines and cruise companies may have additional, different requirements; be sure to confirm when purchasing tickets.

NAPLES | ITALY | JUNE 23-26, 2016

TRANSPORTATION TO NAPLES

Naples is the main transportation hub for southern Italy with several major train lines. The train and bus stations are in the huge Piazza Garibaldi, on the eastern side of the city. Naples has an airport, Aeroporto Capodichino, with flights to other parts of Italy and to Europe. A bus connects the airport with Piazza Garibaldi. Ferries and hydrofoils run from Molo Beverello to the islands of Capri, Ischia, Procida, and Sardinia.

BY PLANE

Naples Airport, also known as Capodichino Airport is the international airport serving Naples. It's well organized and connected to the Center of the City with public transportation (5.9 km north-northeast of the city). The airport Capodichino has two terminal buildings: Terminal 1 is for departing travellers and Terminal 2, located away from the airfield, is used for charter operations. The airport is operated by GE.S.A.C., a corporation partially owned by the British airport company BAA.

From the airport you can take a bus for €3 (called Alibus) which has two stops only: Stazione Centrale (Central station) and Piazza Municipio, near the main ferry port (molo Beverello). You can buy your ticket on the bus. Further connections are listed on the page of the official website of the airport.

Beware of illegal, unauthorized taxis and of anyone who may approach you directly. Authorized taxis are clearly visible at the exit; fixed fares exist for a number of destinations, and must be clearly shown in the cab. Make sure they are before getting on the cab and threaten to call the police ("polizia") should the taxi driver try to push back.

BY TRAIN

The main station is Napoli Centrale - Piazza Garibaldi Station, connected to the Naples subway system. Other stations include Mergellina, a magnificent Art Déco building and Campi Flegrei. The costs of trains from / to Rome vary a lot, ranging from a 10.50€ 3-hour regional train to 1-hour 10-minute high speed FrecciaRossa starting at 29€. The new high speed train Italo (provided by the private company NTV) offers competitive prices (booking in advance the price can be just 19€).

BY BOAT

Cruise ships dock at Stazione Marittima, a large terminal located right in the city

BY CAR

Naples is directly connected with Rome by the A1 highway, and the trip takes generally less than 2 hours. Due to traffic jam and parking shortage in city center, it's advisable to leave your car in a parking lot near the motorway exit or your accommodation, and to use public transportation

BY BUS

Many national and international private bus services operate in Naples, generally stopping at Piazza Garibaldi or Piazza Municipio.

ABOUT THE CITY

HISTORIC CITY CENTER

Naples' historic city centre is the largest in Europe, covering 1,700 hectares (4,200 acres) and enclosing 27 centuries of history, and is listed by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. Naples has long been a major cultural centre with a global sphere of influence, particularly during the Renaissance and Enlightenment eras. In the immediate vicinity of Naples are numerous culturally and historically significant sites, including the Palace of Caserta and the Roman ruins of Pompeii and Herculaneum. Culinarily, Naples is synonymous with pizza, which originated in the city. Neapolitan music has furthermore been highly influential, credited with the invention of the romantic guitar and the mandolin, as well as notable contributions to opera and folk standards. Popular characters and historical figures who have come to symbolise the city include Januarius, the patron saint of Naples, the comic figure Pulcinella, and the Sirens from the Greek epic poem the Odyssey. According to CNN, the metro stop "Toledo" is the most beautiful in Europe and it won also the LEAF Award '2013 as "Public building of the year".

NATIONAL ARCHEOLOGICAL MUSEUM

The museum contains a large collection of Roman artifacts from Pompeii, Stabiae and Herculaneum. The collection includes works of the highest quality produced in Greek, Roman and Renaissance times. It is the most important Italian archaeological museum and is considered one of the most important in the world.

Charles III of Spain founded the museum in the 1750s. The building he used for it had been erected as a cavalry barracks and during its time as the seat of the University of Naples (from 1616 to 1777) was extended, in the late 18th century.

The museum hosts extensive collections of Greek and Roman antiquities. Their core is from the Farnese Collection, which includes a collection of engraved gems (including the Farnese Cup, a Ptolemaic bowl made of sardonyx agate and the most famous piece in the "Treasure of the Magnificent", and is founded upon gems collected by Cosimo de' Medici and Lorenzo il Magnifico in the 15th century) and the Farnese Marbles. Among the notable works found in the museum are the Herculaneum papyri, carbonized by the eruption of Mount Vesuvius, found after 1752 in Villa of the Papyri.

POMPEII & HERCULANEUM

Sand-swept Egyptian pyramids, gondolas slicing through a Venetian canal, a geisha's enticing perfume as she toddles by in a small district in Kyoto. These moments are what travelers the world over seek: an evocation of the past, a platform for understanding history's complexities, context.

For lovers of the Roman era, only Pompeii and neighboring Herculaneum offer this and more. Their swift destruction provided a vacuum seal on the past for which archeologists are eternally grateful. Today visitors to Italy place Pompeii and the smaller site of Herculaneum on their south of Rome itinerary without fail – because with a visit of only a few short hours, the imagination is fueled with a lifetime of memories.

NAPLES | ITALY | JUNE 23-26, 2016

CAPELLA SANSEVERO

The Cappella Sansevero (also known as the Capella Sansevero de' Sangri or Pietatella) is a chapel located on Via Francesco de Sanctis 19, just northwest of the church of San Domenico Maggiore, in the historic center of Naples, Italy. The chapel is more properly named the Chapel of Santa Maria della Pietà, or the Pietatella. It contains works of art by some of the leading Italian artists of the 18th century.

Its origin dates to 1590 when John Francesco di Sangro, Duke of Torremaggiore, after recovering from a serious illness, had a private chapel built in what were then the gardens of the nearby Sansevero family residence, the Palazzo Sansevero. The building was converted into a family burial chapel by Alessandro di Sangro in 1613 (as inscribed on the marble plinth over the entrance to the chapel). Definitive form was given to the chapel by Raimondo di Sangro, Prince of Sansevero, who also included Masonic symbols in its reconstruction. Until 1888 a passageway connected the Sansevero palace with the chapel.

The chapel received its alternative name of Pietatella from a painting of the Virgin Mary (La Pietà), spotted there by an unjustly arrested prisoner, as reported in the book "Napoli Sacra" by Cesare d'Engenio Caracciolo in 1623. When the chapel was constructed it was originally dedicated to Santa Maria della Pietà, after the painting.

NAPLES UNDERGROUND

Forty meters below the characteristic and lively streets of the Historic Center of Naples, you find a different world, unexplored, isolated by time, but deeply connected with the world above. It's the heart of Naples, and the place from which the city was born. To visit it is to travel to the past, a world 2400 years old.

This geothermal area runs generally from Mount Vesuvius beneath a wide area including Pompei, Herculaneum, Naples and over to Pozzuoli and the coastal Baia area. Every historic epic, from the foundation of Neopolis, to the bombs of WWII, has left its mark on the walls of the yellow tufa stone, the soul of Naples, and the stone with which the city was built.

CASTEL DEL'OVO

Castel dell'Ovo (Egg Castle) is a seaside castle located on the former island of Megaride, now a peninsula, on the Gulf of Naples. The castle's name comes from a legend about the Roman poet Virgil, who had a reputation in medieval times as a great sorcerer and predictor of the future. In the legend, Virgil put a magical egg into the foundations to support the fortifications. Had this egg been broken, the castle would have been destroyed and a series of disastrous events would have involved the city of Naples. The castle is located between the districts of San Ferdinando and Chiaia, opposite the zone of Mergellina.

NAPLES | ITALY | JUNE 23-26, 2016

ABOUT THE CITY

MADRE Museum of Contemporary Art

MADRE, Museum of contemporary Art Donna Regina, is located in the heart of old Naples, on what is known as the "Via dei Musei," just a stone's throw away from the Duomo, the Museo Archeologico Nazionale and the Accademia di Belle Arti (Galleria d'Arte Moderna), where the ancient San Lorenzo district is situated.

The Museum takes its name from the building that hosts it, the Palazzo Donnaregina, which like all the surrounding area owes its name to the Monastery of Santa Maria Donnaregina, founded by the Swabians (13th century) and then expanded and rebuilt in 1325 by Queen Mary of Hungary, wife to Charles II of Anjou. All that remains of the ancient monastic complex is the church of the same name, which overlooks Piazza Donnaregina, built in the Baroque period, and the "old" 14th-century Gothic-style church of Donnaregina, which has previously hosted exhibitions and special events organized by the Museum.

On June 10, 2005 the Madre inaugurated its spaces with the opening of site-specific installations in the rooms on the first floor; between 2005 and 2006 the whole building was completed, and the rooms on the second floor were opened to the public. These rooms host part of the collection, while the rooms on the third floor are used for temporary exhibitions.

ALMAFI COAST

The Amalfi Coast (Italian: Costiera Amalfitana) is a stretch of coastline on the southern coast of the Sorrentine Peninsula in the Province of Salerno in Southern Italy. The Amalfi Coast is a popular tourist destination for the region and Italy as a whole, attracting thousands of tourists annually. During the 10th–11th centuries, the Duchy of Amalfi existed on the territory of the Amalfi Coast, centered in the town of Amalfi. The Amalfi coast was later controlled by the Principality of Salerno, until Amalfi was sacked by the Republic of Pisa in 1137. Since then the Amalfi coast has experienced a crisis. In 1997, the Amalfi Coast was listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site as a cultural landscape.

The only land route to the Amalfi Coast is the 40 kilometres (25 mi) long Strada Statale 163 which runs along the coastline from the town of Vietri sul Mare in the east to Positano in the west.

The Amalfi Coast is known for its production of limoncello liqueur as the area is a known cultivator of lemons, known as sfusato amalfitano in Italian, which are grown in terraced gardens along the entire coast between February and October. Amalfi is also a known maker of a hand-made thick paper which is called bambagina. Other renowned local products are a particular kind of anchovies (local Italian: alici) from Cetara, and the colorful handmade ceramics from Vietri.

How does it work?

Each participant will be given a CIPP passport containing 3 questions per exhibitor (questions are to be provided by the exhibitor) which they will have to answer correctly to obtain your approval stamped in the passport (see example below).
