

Monash European Perinatal Masterclass

Program

Preeclampsia

- Population screening
- Primary prevention
- Managing severe preeclampsia
- Novel therapies

Third stage of labour

- Delayed cord clamping
- Advances in uterotonic therapies
- Modern management of severe postpartum haemorrhage
- Placenta accreta

RANZCOG Fetal Surveillance Education Program (FSEP)

Invited speakers include:

- Jenny Myers (UK)
- John Kingdom (CA)
- Ben Mol (AU)
- Tim Draycott (UK)
- Ioannis Gallos (UK)
- Euan Wallace (AU)
- Marian Knight (UK)
- Ed Johnstone (UK)
- Stefan Verlohren (DE)
- Ronny Knol (NL)

Who should participate?

This course is designed for Obstetricians, Obstetric trainees,
General Practitioner Obstetricians,
Midwives and Perinatal Scientists

RANZCOG CPD points

Day 1 & 2: Masterclass - 13 points

Day 3: FSEP - 7 points

Free communications

Opportunity for oral and poster
presentations will be available

Dates

16 - 18 April 2019

Location

Monash University Prato Centre, Italy

Abstract submission

Deadline: 21 February 2019

Registration (AUD)

Save up to $300 before 28 February 2019!
2 days $980 + FSEP $320

Normal rates:
2 days $1200 + FSEP $400

Email: MED.Ob.Gyn.Courses@monash.edu

Register : <https://www.monash.edu/medicine/scs/ob-gyn/short-courses-for-professional-development/monash-european-perinatal-masterclass>

Monash European Perinatal Masterclass

Program

TUESDAY 16 APRIL, 2019

Day One – Science and Management of Preeclampsia

0800 – 1730
Behind the scenes: the science of preeclampsia	Dr Kirsten Palmer
The placenta clinic –benefits and how to do it	Prof John Kingdom
Screening for preeclampsia and the role of aspirin	Dr Daniel Rolnik
Prediction of preeclampsia	Prof Jenny Myers
The sFlt-1/PIGF Ratio: ruling out pre-eclampsia for up to 4 weeks and the value of retesting	Dr Stefan Verlohren
To deliver or not to deliver – how do we decide?	Prof Ben Mol
Managing severe preeclampsia	To be confirmed
MgSO ₄ for the prevention of eclampsia	To be confirmed
Future predictors	To be confirmed
Recent and future treatments: the pipeline to success	Prof Ed Johnstone

WEDNESDAY 17 APRIL, 2019

Day Two – Third Stage of Labour: Management and Complications

0800 - 1700
Epidemiology of PPH	Prof Marian Knight
Which uterotonic should we use?	Prof Tim Draycott
Inhaled oxytocin	Dr Kirsten Palmer
Tranexamic acid for the prevention of blood loss after vaginal delivery	To be confirmed
Network meta-analysis of prophylactic uterotonic agents	Dr Ioannis Gallos
Bakri balloons	Prof Euan Wallace
Management of placenta accreta	Dr Sebastian Hobson
Transition at birth and the influence of delayed cord clamping	A/Prof Graeme Polglase
Outcomes from delayed cord clamping clinical trials	Dr Ronny Knol

Monash European Perinatal Masterclass

Program

THURSDAY 18 APRIL, 2019

Day Three – Fetal Surveillance Education Program

0900 - 1700

Facilitator – Mr Mark Beaves

The utero-placental unit, fetal heart rate control and basic fetal assessment

The normal CTG, who to monitor and an introduction to the abnormal CTG

The abnormal CTG, focusing on decelerations, interpretation and management

CTG workshop and discussion

Course evaluation and 60 MCQ assessment