

AGORA ADVANCED GYNAECOLOGICAL LAPAROSCOPY COURSE

MELBOURNE
18-20 MAY 2023

Presented by Agora Medical Education

This course is designed for trainees of all levels and surgeons performing basic laparoscopy. It provides the foundation and skills required for advanced laparoscopic surgery.

Course Director: A/Prof Alex Ades

Course Time:

8 am until 6 pm

Richmond Rowing Club

Registration:

Standard - $2950 incl. GST

Trainee - $2450 incl. GST

This activity is pending
RANZCOG CPD approval

For more information contact:

Kate Scott

03 9421 2533

education@agoracentre.com.au

agoracentre.com.au

AGORA ADVANCED GYNAECOLOGICAL LAPAROSCOPY COURSE

Melbourne

18 - 20 May 2023

Course Features

- Training in all skills required to perform advanced laparoscopic surgery including surgical anatomy, instrument/tissue handling, tissue dissection, laparoscopic suturing, intra/extracorporeal knot tying
- Didactic lectures and surgical videos
- Hands-on practice with specific drills/exercises
- Recorded start-to-finish surgical cases to illustrate all principles

Topics

- Principles of Laparoscopic Surgery
- Surgical Anatomy
- Principles of Electrosurgery
- Surgical Complications
- Laparoscopic Excision of Endometriosis
- Laparoscopic Salpingectomy
- Laparoscopic Oophorectomy
- Laparoscopic Ovarian Cystectomy
- Laparoscopic Hysterectomy

Pelvic Trainer

- One dedicated pelvic trainer per participant
- Hand-eye coordination exercises
- Pelvic surgery models
- Laparoscopic models
- Laparoscopic suturing
 1. Needle handling and loading
 2. Suture handling
 3. Extra-corporeal knots
 4. Intra-corporeal knots
 5. Interrupted and continuous suturing for more information: <https://www.agoracentre.com.au/medical-education>