OVERVIEW

The purpose of this program will be to educate healthcare providers who care for patients with vascular lesions, highlighting important developments in the management and treatment of these patients. Participants will understand, and when appropriate, integrate these developments into their clinical practices.

The Symposium on Peripheral vAsCular Embolization (SPACE) will offer didactic lectures related to the natural history of vascular lesions, the treatment options available for complex vascular lesions and case management presentations by a panel of expert faculty. Concepts regarding patient selection, best technical approaches, potential synergies of different embolization materials, and techniques for patient surveillance will be reviewed.

OBJECTIVES

After completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Compare and contrast the equipment and procedural techniques for performing peripheral vascular embolization.
- Appraise the role of embolization as adjunct for the treatment of aortic aneurysms.
- Appraise the role of embolization for the treatment of visceral/renal artery aneurysms.
- Appraise the role of embolization for congenital and acquired/traumatic vascular lesions.
- Assess clinical management and surveillance protocols used for peripheral vascular lesions.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Vascular Surgeons, Interventional Radiologists, Interventional Cardiologists, Cardiovascular Surgeons and other allied health professionals involved in the care of peripheral vascular lesions.
